ROSTER NOTES

HUSKERS RETURN 10 STARTERS FROM 2025

Nebraska's 2026 roster features 115 players. The roster includes 88 returning players and 27 newcomers.

- Nebraska returns a total of 14 starters from last season, including six starters on offense, six starters on defense and its starting punter and place-kicker.
- NU has added 27 players to its roster. The newcomers include 11 freshmen and 16 transfers.
- The 16 first-year transfers on the Husker roster include 15 FBS transfers and one FCS transfer.
- Nebraska's 15 FBS transfers include 10 players from Power Four programs: Boston College, Iowa State (two), LSU, Michigan State, Pitt, South Carolina, UCLA (two) and Virginia.

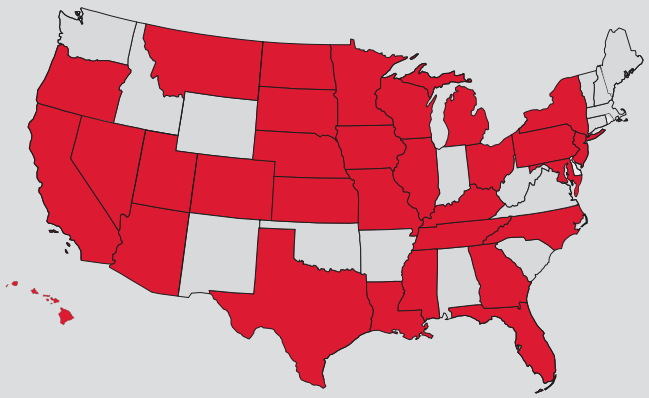
CLASS	PLAYERS	% OF ROSTER
Freshmen*	23	20%
Sophomores	45	39%
Juniors	29	25%
Seniors	18	16%

11 true freshmen and 12 redshirt freshmen*

NEBRASKA ROSTER HAS NATIONAL FLAIR

Nebraska's roster features players from 31 states and three players from two foreign countries (Australia and Germany).

- NU has had a letterwinner from 47 of the 50 states, missing only Idaho, New Hampshire and Rhode Island.
- States with multiple players on the roster include: Nebraska (31), Florida (10), California (9), Texas (7), Missouri (5), Colorado (4), Georgia (4), Iowa (4), Pennsylvania (4), Arizona (3), Kansas (3), Maryland (3), New Jersey (3), Nevada (3), Illinois (2) and Mississippi (2).
- The states of Hawaii, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, North Carolina, North Dakota, New York, Ohio, Oregon, South Dakota, Tennessee, Utah and Wisconsin are each represented with one player on Nebraska's 2026 roster.



MATT RHULE SET FOR FOURTH SEASON

Matt Rhule is in his fourth season at Nebraska in 2026. He owns a 66-63 record in his 10 seasons as a college head coach. He took on a rebuilding project in each of his three college stops and excluding his first year at each school, Rhule boasts a 58-34 record.

- Rhule has won 19 games in his first three seasons, matching Nebraska's win total from the five seasons prior to Rhule's arrival.
- Rhule has led Nebraska to back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in more than a decade.

NEW COORDINATORS HIGHLIGHT STAFF CHANGES

The Nebraska coaching staff will feature six new assistant coaches in 2026, including a new defensive coordinator.

- Rob Aurich is in his first season as Nebraska's defensive coordinator. Aurich has coordinated a top-25 defense at the FBS, FCS and Division II levels. In 2025, he coordinated a San Diego State unit that was sixth nationally in scoring defense.
- Brett Maher will serve as Nebraska's special teams coordinator in 2026, while Nick Humphrey will be the Huskers' co-special teams coordinator. Both coaches were on staff last year when Nebraska ranked in the top 25 nationally in blocked kicks, punt returns, punt return defense, kickoff returns and kickoff return defense.
- New faces on the offensive staff include Lonnie Teasley (run game coordinator) and Geep Wade (offensive line).
- Defensive assistants in their first season on the Cornhusker staff include Corey Brown (defensive line), Roy Manning (defensive edges) and Tyler Yelk (safeties). Dave Tollefson has also joined the staff as a defensive analyst who will work with the defensive line.

A LOOK AT NEBRASKA'S SCHEDULE

Nebraska will play three non-conference games and nine Big Ten contests in 2026. The Huskers will play Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Maryland, Michigan State, Ohio State, Oregon, Rutgers and Washington. Nebraska will not play Michigan, Minnesota, Northwestern, Penn State, Purdue, USC, UCLA or Wisconsin.

- The 2026 season begins against Ohio (Sept. 5) before NU hosts Bowling Green (Sept. 12) and FCS opponent North Dakota (Sept. 19).
- Nebraska opens Big Ten play at Michigan State (Sept. 26) before hosting Maryland (Oct. 3) and Indiana (Oct. 10) on the first two Saturdays of October. The Huskers' matchup with Indiana will mark the first time Nebraska has played the defending national champion since 2006, when the Huskers hosted Texas at Memorial Stadium.
- Nebraska has just two home games after Oct. 10. NU travels to Oregon on Oct. 17 then has its lone bye week of the season. The Huskers return home to host Washington on Halloween. NU then has back-to-back road trips to Illinois (Nov. 7) and Rutgers (Nov. 14).
- The Huskers' final home game is against Ohio State on Nov. 21. Nebraska closes the season at Iowa on Friday, Nov. 27, the 37th straight year the Huskers will play on Black Friday.

MATT RHULE

[HEAD COACH]

4TH YEAR | 14TH YEAR AS A HEAD COACH

[HONORS & AWARDS]

- 2019 Sporting News National Coach of the Year
- 2019 AFCA Region IV Coach of the Year
- 2019 Big 12 Coach of the Year

Matt Rhule is in his fourth season as Nebraska's head coach in 2026. He has won as many games in three seasons (19) as the Huskers won in the five seasons before his arrival.

Rhule enters 2026 with 13 years of experience as a head coach, including 10 years in the college ranks and three seasons as the head coach of the NFL's Carolina Panthers. Highly regarded as a program builder and player developer, Rhule led successful turnarounds of the programs at Baylor and Temple and has either matched or improved Nebraska's record in each of his first three seasons in Lincoln.

Rhule's teams have increased or matched their win total from the previous season in each of his 10 seasons as a college head coach. Additionally, Rhule is one of just 12 active FBS head coaches to guide three different schools to bowl appearances.

After leading Nebraska to five wins in 2023, Rhule's second Nebraska team took another step forward with a 7-6 record in 2024. The seven wins were the most at Nebraska since 2016, and the bowl victory was the program's first since 2015. NU posted an unbeaten record against non-conference teams for the first time since 2005, and the Huskers were ranked as high as No. 22 during the season, Nebraska's highest ranking in eight years. Nebraska also found itself ranked in 2025, when the Huskers posted consecutive winning seasons for the first time in a decade.

The steady improvement at Nebraska follows the path of Rhule's success at Temple and Baylor. Temple won only two games in Rhule's first season but in year three, the Owls set a school record for victories before winning a conference title in his fourth season. Rhule moved on to Baylor with similar success. The Bears won only one game in Rhule's first season but in his third year, Baylor won a school-record 11 games and played in the Big 12 Championship Game and the Sugar Bowl.

HEAD COACHING CAREER

NEBRASKA: Rhule led Nebraska to a 5-7 record in his first season in 2023, tying for the program's most victories in seven seasons. In the final year of Big Ten divisions, Rhule led the Huskers to three West Division wins, matching NU's total from the previous three seasons combined. NU also went undefeated in the month of October for the first time since 2001.

Rhule and his staff helped Nebraska rank among the nation's 15 most-improved teams in rushing defense, rushing offense, total defense and scoring defense. The Huskers also showed improvement in special teams, ranking second nationally with four blocked kicks. Individually, Rhule and his staff helped 10 Huskers earn All-Big Ten honors, including seven returning players who were recognized for the first time in their careers.

Nebraska improved to 7-6 in Rhule's second season, when the Huskers posted the program's first winning season and first bowl victory in eight years. The Huskers were ranked as high as No. 22 during the 2024 season, and Nebraska went undefeated against non-conference opponents for the first time since 2005. Five of Nebraska's six losses were one-score defeats, but the Huskers also showed improvement in winning close games as two of their final three victories came by seven or fewer points.

The Husker defense ranked in the top 20 nationally in rushing defense, total defense and scoring defense for the second straight season in 2024. Other than Nebraska, the only teams ranked in the top 20 nationally in rushing defense, total defense and scoring defense in both 2023 and 2024 were Michigan, Ohio and Penn State. Offensively, Nebraska boasted the nation's third-most improved passing unit in 2024. That group was led by a pair of true freshmen, as quarterback Dylan Raiola set Nebraska's freshman passing record while receiver Jacory Barney Jr. had the most receptions by a freshman in program history.

Rhule's success was not limited to the field, as Nebraska posted its highest team grade-point average in history and had more academic All-Big Ten selections than any other school during the 2024 season.

In 2025, Nebraska finished with a 7-6 record and took on a top-15 opponent in a bowl game for the first time in 13 years. The Huskers began the season 6-2 before losing their starting quarterback to a season-ending injury. Offensively, Emmett Johnson led the nation in scrimmage yards per game and was the Big Ten Running Back of the Year and a first-team All-American. Defensively, Nebraska ranked in the top 30 nationally in total defense for the third year in a row.

CAROLINA PANTHERS: Following successful stints as the head coach at Baylor and Temple, Rhule moved on to the National Football League as the head coach of the Carolina Panthers. Rhule coached the Panthers for two-plus seasons, posting an 11-27 record.

Rhule inherited a Carolina team that had lost eight straight games to finish the 2019 season. He led the Panthers to a 3-2 start in 2020 before finishing with a 5-11 record that included eight one-score losses.

Carolina won its first three games of the 2021 season before injuries at the quarterback position contributed to a 5-12 record. Rhule then led the Panthers to a 1-4 record through the first five weeks of the 2022 season.

BAYLOR: Rhule produced an impressive turnaround in three seasons as Baylor's head coach from 2017 to 2019, guiding the Bears to a 19-20 record.

Baylor won only one game in Rhule's first season in 2017 but two years later, the Bears went 11-3, becoming the first team from a Power Conference to go from 11 losses to 11 wins in two or fewer seasons.

Baylor finished 1-11 in 2017 but Rhule was successful in creating a strong culture and developing players, including quarterback Charlie Brewer, who was named the Big 12 Co-Offensive Freshman of the Year.

In his second year, Rhule guided Baylor to a 7-6 record in 2018 capped by a Texas Bowl victory over Vanderbilt. Baylor's six-win improvement from the 2017 to the 2018 season ranked third nationally and led all Power Conference programs. His staff's player development was on display again, as wide receiver Jalen Hurd was named the 2018 Big 12 Newcomer of the Year.

Rhule delivered a record-breaking season in his final year in Waco. Just two years after a one-win season, Rhule led Baylor to a school-record 11 victories in 2019. The Bears began the season 9-0 to mark the best start in school history, and the season ended with Baylor playing in its first Big 12 Championship game and its second Sugar Bowl. With a second straight bowl appearance, Rhule became only the second coach in Baylor history to make a bowl game in two of his first three seasons.

With an 11-3 record in 2019, Baylor finished with a No. 13 ranking, the Bears' second-highest final ranking since 1951. The only losses in Rhule's final season were a pair of three-point defeats to a top-10 Oklahoma squad and a 12-point Sugar Bowl loss to a top-5 Georgia team.

Sixteen Baylor players earned all-conference honors in 2019, and defensive tackle James Lynch was named the 2019 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Defensive Lineman of the Year.

TEMPLE: Rhule's first head coaching job came at Temple, where he led the Owl program to new heights in four seasons from 2013 to 2016. Rhule guided Temple to a 28-23 record, including 20-7 over his final two years.

Rhule once again laid the foundation in his first year, when Temple finished 2-10. After an 0-6 start, the Owls went 2-4 over the final six games and never trailed entering the fourth quarter in any of their final six games.

With an emphasis on closing out games entering Rhule's second season, his team succeeded by allowing only 23 fourth-quarter points in 12 games in 2014. The strong finishes helped Temple achieve bowl eligibility with a 6-6 record.

Temple tied its school record with 10 victories in Rhule's third season in 2015, and the Owls again won 10 games in 2016. He led Temple to back-to-back 10-win seasons for the first time in program history, as the Owls had produced only one 10-win season before Rhule's time as head coach. Temple also played for the conference title in both 2015 and 2016.

In 2015, Rhule led his team to a conference division title. The Owls started the year 7-0 and achieved a national ranking for the first time in 36 seasons. Temple spent eight weeks ranked in 2015, accounting for half of the 16 all-time weeks the Owls have been ranked entering the 2024 season.

Rhule's final season culminated with another 10-win campaign and the program's first conference title in nearly 40 years, as Temple defeated No. 20 Navy, 34-20, in the American Athletic Conference Championship Game.

ASSISTANT COACHING CAREER

NEW YORK GIANTS: Rhule's most recent season as an assistant coach came in the NFL, as he was an assistant offensive line coach with the New York Giants in 2012. The Giants finished 9-7 that season, and Rhule's work with the offensive line helped New York have a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver.

TEMPLE: Rhule was on the Temple staff for six consecutive seasons from 2006 to 2011. He joined the Owls as the defensive line coach but moved to coaching quarterbacks the next season. Rhule served as Temple's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2008 to 2010, and he was the assistant offensive coordinator and tight ends coach for his final season in 2011.

In 2011, the Owls went 9-4 and won their first bowl game since 1979. For the second time in Rhule's tenure, Temple set a school record for single-season rushing yards and rushing touchdowns. Temple originally set school records for season rushing yards and offensive all-conference selections in 2009, when Rhule was in his second season as offensive coordinator.

In his first season as offensive coordinator in 2008, Rhule's unit helped the Owls to their most wins (5) in nearly two decades. Temple outscored its opponents for the first time in 18 seasons, and Bruce Francis established the school record for career receiving touchdowns.

In addition to his coaching duties, Rhule served as Temple's recruiting coordinator in 2007 and 2011. The Owls landed the No. 1 recruiting class in the MAC in each of those seasons.

WESTERN CAROLINA: Rhule coached at FCS Western Carolina from 2002 to 2005, holding a variety of titles during his time as a Catamount. He was the assistant head coach for his final three seasons on staff, as Rhule took on additional duties while head coach Kent Briggs battled cancer.

Rhule coached the offensive line, special teams and linebackers during his tenure, while also serving as the running game coordinator in 2005. Western Carolina ranked 12th in the FCS in total defense in 2004, led by Rhule's linebackers who occupied the top five spots on the team in tackles. As the special teams coach, Rhule's unit led the FCS ranks in kickoff return average (27.4) in 2005.

UCLA: In an impressive rise up the ranks, Rhule landed a Power Five assistant coaching position in just the fourth season of his coaching career. Rhule was the assistant defensive line coach at UCLA in 2001, when the Bruins started 6-0 with four wins over ranked opponents. UCLA ranked in the top 25 nationally in total defense in Rhule's lone season on staff.

BUFFALO: Rhule coached the linebackers at the University of Buffalo for two seasons in 1999 and 2000, which marked the Bulls' first two seasons transitioning to the FBS level from the FCS ranks.

ALBRIGHT COLLEGE: One year after he was finished playing college football, Rhule landed his first full-time coaching job as the linebackers coach at Albright College in Pennsylvania in 1998.

PLAYING CAREER (PENN STATE)

Rhule was a linebacker at Penn State from 1994 to 1997. He helped the Nittany Lions to a 41-8 record in his four seasons with one Big Ten title, three bowl victories and a top-20 final ranking every season.

PERSONAL

A native of New York City, Rhule earned his bachelor's degree in political science from Penn State and his master's in educational psychology from Buffalo. He and his wife Julie have three children, Bryant, Vivienne and Leona.

MATT RHULE COACHING NOTEBOOK

REBUILDING NEBRASKA

Matt Rhule has made measurable progress in his first three seasons rebuilding the Nebraska football program.

- Rhule has won 19 games in his three seasons, a total that matches Nebraska's win total from the five seasons prior to Rhule's hire.
- Rhule had back-to-back winning seasons in 2024 and 2025, a first for the program in more than a decade.
- In 2024, Rhule led Nebraska to its first bowl victory in nine years.
- In 2025, Rhule guided the Huskers to the program's first winning season in eight years.

OFFENSIVE HIGHLIGHTS

- Nebraska has set school season records for fewest turnovers and team and individual completion percentage.
- In 2025, Nebraska scored 50 points in back-to-back games for the first time in 18 years.
- Emmett Johnson was a first-team All-American in 2025, the first Husker offensive player to be a first-team All-American in 24 years.

DEFENSIVE HIGHLIGHTS

- NU ranks 12th nationally in total defense, 13th in pass defense, 21st in rushing defense and 22nd in scoring defense over Rhule's first three seasons (2023-25).
- The Huskers are one of five teams nationally to rank in the top 30 in total defense each of the last three seasons (2023-25).
- Nebraska has held 42 percent of its opponents to 14 or fewer points under Rhule.
- In 2025, NU posted its first shutout in 16 years.
- Nebraska has posted its best rushing defense, total defense and scoring defense of the Big Ten era under Rhule.

SPECIAL TEAMS HIGHLIGHTS

- On the special teams front, Nebraska ranked in the top 15 nationally in blocked kicks (9th), kickoff returns (12th), kickoff return defense (12th) and punt returns (15th) in 2025.

A HISTORY OF IMPROVING PROGRAMS

Rhule has a proven ability to improve programs after laying a strong foundation in year one. Rhule has matched or exceeded his previous season's win total every year of his collegiate head coaching career.

- At both Temple and Baylor, Rhule led his team to a school-record victory total in just his third season at the school.
- Rhule took Temple from two wins in his first season to a school-record 10 victories in both his third and fourth seasons. He then took Baylor from one win in his first season to a school-record 11 victories in his third season.
- Rhule won 10 games at Temple in 2015 and 2016. He is responsible for two of the three 10-win seasons in Temple's 126-year history.
- He also took the Owls to back-to-back bowl games in 2015 and 2016, the first time Temple played in a bowl game in consecutive seasons.
- In 2015, Rhule led Temple to the American Athletic Conference Championship, the Owls' second conference title in program history and the first in nearly 40 years.
- At Baylor, the Bears became the first power conference program to go from 11 losses to 11 wins in two or fewer seasons.
- In 2019, Rhule led Baylor to its most wins (11) in school history, the Bears advanced to their first Big 12 Championship Game and finished with a No. 13 ranking, the program's second-highest final ranking since 1951.

FROM THE NFL TO NEBRASKA

Rhule is one of six FBS head coaches who boast experience as a full-time NFL head coach.

Rob Aurich is in his first season as Nebraska's defensive coordinator in 2026. Aurich was a nominee for the 2025 Broyles Award, which is presented annually to the nation's best assistant coach.

Aurich has made a rapid rise up the ranks in his first 12 coaching seasons. He began his career at the Division II level, spending four seasons at Bemidji State from 2014 to 2017. Aurich then spent six seasons (2018-23) in the FCS before coaching at San Diego State in 2024 and 2025. Aurich has served as the defensive coordinator at the Division II, FCS and FBS levels and has produced a top-25 defense at each stop.

In his first year as an FBS defensive coordinator in 2025, Aurich helped the San Diego State defense post a dominant season. The Aztecs led the country and set a Mountain West Conference record with three shutouts in 2025 while holding eight of their 12 regular-season opponents to 10 or fewer points. During the regular season when Aurich led the defense, SDSU ranked in the top 10 nationally in 10 categories. At the conclusion of the regular season when Aurich left for Nebraska, San Diego State owned the fifth-best scoring defense in Mountain West history and the top scoring defense at San Diego State since 1976.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

SAN DIEGO STATE: Aurich spent two seasons at San Diego State in 2024 and 2025. He was the Aztecs' defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2025 after coaching the defensive edges in 2024. SDSU boasted one of the nation's top defenses in his two seasons on staff, highlighted by a historic defense in his lone season as coordinator.

In 2025, San Diego State led the country with three shutouts and held eight of its 12 opponents to 10 or fewer points, including five opponents who were held out of the end zone. During the regular season when Aurich coordinated the defense, the Aztecs allowed only 266.7 yards and 12.6 points per game to rank fifth nationally in scoring defense and seventh in total defense. The scoring defense was a 17 points per game improvement over 2024.

In the 2025 regular season, San Diego State was just the ninth team in Mountain West history to allow fewer than 270 yards per game, while the team's scoring defense was the fifth best in conference history. Including the bowl game - which Aurich did not coach - the Aztecs became just the second San Diego State team in 40 seasons to allow 200 or fewer total points. Aurich's unit ranked fifth in the country by allowing only 4.4 yards per play in 2025. The Aztec defense also ranked second in the country in pass efficiency defense, third in red zone defense, fifth in defensive touchdowns, sixth in scoring and pass defense, 10th in first-down defense, 11th in total defense, 13th in third-down defense,14th in interceptions and 25th in sacks.

Individually, cornerback Chris Johnson was named the 2025 Mountain West Co-Defensive Player of the Year. Three San Diego State defenders made the All-Mountain West first team and a total of six Aztec defensive players earned all-conference honors.

In his first season on staff in 2024, Aurich helped the Aztecs rank 12th nationally in defensive touchdowns and 28th in sacks per game. Aurich's edge rushers accounted for 22 of the team's 32 total sacks. Sophomore edge rusher Trey White was a first-team all-conference selection, an honorable-mention All-American and a member of the Bronko Nagurski Trophy Watch List as a candidate for national defensive player of the year. White led the Mountain West in sacks (12.5) and tackles for loss (18.5).

IDAHO: Aurich was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Idaho in 2022 and 2023. Under his direction, the Vandals posted a top-25 defense each season. Idaho produced 16 wins in Aurich's two seasons, which tied for the Vandals' most wins in a two-year span in 30 years.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2025 Broyles Award Nominee (Nation's Top Assistant Coach)
- Coordinated a top-25 defense at the FBS, FCS and Division II levels
- San Diego State had a conference-record three shutouts in 2025
- The Aztecs ranked 3rd nationally in red zone defense in 2025
- SDSU ranked 5th nationally in defensive touchdowns in 2025
- The Aztecs ranked 6th nationally in scoring defense in 2025
- San Diego State was 6th nationally in pass defense in 2025
- The Aztecs ranked 11th nationally in total defense in 2025
- Idaho ranked 14th in the FCS in total defense in 2023
- Bemidji State ranked 24th in Division II in total defense in 2017

In 2023, Idaho finished with a No. 4 national ranking and an appearance in the FCS Quarterfinals, a first for the program since 1993. Idaho ranked 14th in the FCS in total defense, allowing just over 300 yards per game. The Vandals had the No. 21 pass defense, which was led by Marcus Harris, who went on to be selected in the 2025 NFL Draft.

In 2022, Idaho was one of the top defenses in the FCS. The Vandals ranked fifth in interceptions, 19th in pass defense, 23rd in pass efficiency defense and 24th in total defense and defensive touchdowns. The defense helped Idaho finish with a top-25 ranking and an appearance in the FCS playoffs.

Individually, Aurich's defensive players combined for 12 All-Big Sky honors in his two seasons.

SOUTH DAKOTA: Aurich spent four seasons at South Dakota from 2018 to 2021, serving as the Coyotes' special teams coordinator and linebackers coach. Twelve individuals Aurich coached earned all-conference honors in his four seasons.

Defensively, linebacker Jack Cochrane was an All-American and an Academic All-American who ended his career with 327 tackles, the sixth-highest total in school history. The play of Aurich's linebackers helped South Dakota rank 23rd in the FCS in scoring defense in 2021, when the Coyotes hosted an FCS playoff game for the first time in program history. In 2019, Cochrane led the Missouri Valley Conference in tackles. During Aurich's first season in 2018, Darin Greenfield was a Walter Camp FCS All-American.

Aurich also put up impressive numbers as South Dakota's special teams coordinator. In 2021, the Coyotes led the FCS in kickoff returns and ranked 10th in net punting and 12th in blocked punts. During the shortened Covid season in 2020-21, SDSU was second nationally in net punting and 14th in punt returns. In 2019, the Coyotes were seventh in net punting and 11th in blocked punts. Brady Schutt was a 2021 semifinalist for FCS Punter of the Year, and he finished with the best career punting average in program history (43.2).

BEMIDJI STATE: Aurich coached four seasons at Bemidji State, a Division II university in Minnesota. Aurich was the Beavers' defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for three seasons from 2015 to 2017 after joining the staff as the linebackers and special teams coach in 2014.

In his final season as Bemidji State's defensive coordinator in 2017, the Beavers ranked third in Division II in defensive touchdowns, fourth in opponent yards per carry, seventh in interceptions, eighth in red zone defense, ninth in opponent yards per play, 15th in tackles for loss, 17th in scoring defense, 18th in rushing defense and sacks, 22nd in takeaways and 24th in total defense.

In 2016, Bemidji State ranked seventh nationally in interceptions and his 2015 defense was 18th in rushing defense and 21st in scoring defense and TFLs. As the special teams coach in 2014, Aurich helped the Beavers rank seventh in the Division II ranks in blocked kicks, while his linebackers helped Bemidji State rank 13th in tackles for loss.

Individually, Aurich coached his defensive players to 11 first-team all-conference honors in his three seasons as defensive coordinator. Aurich produced a total of 27 defensive all-conference accolades during his time as coordinator.

PLAYING CAREER (MINNESOTA DULUTH)

Aurich was a standout linebacker at Minnesota Duluth from 2006 to 2010, where he was a two-time NCAA Division II national champion. Aurich recorded 310 career tackles, graduating as the program's second-leading all-time tackler. He was a first-team All-American in 2009 when he was also the conference and region defensive player of the year. A three-time all-conference performer, Aurich was also a two-time team captain.

PERSONAL

Aurich earned his bachelor's degree in criminology from the University of Minnesota Duluth in 2010. He received his Master of Business Administration from Bemidji State in 2015. He and his wife, Sarah, have two daughters, Luelle and Isabelle, and one son, Henry.

Dana Holgorsen is in his second full season as Nebraska's offensive coordinator in 2026. He joined the Huskers in November of 2024 and served as the offensive coordinator for the final four games of the season.

Holgorsen came to Nebraska following a 13-year head coaching career at West Virginia and Houston. He owns a 92-69 career record and ranks No. 2 all-time at West Virginia and No. 5 at Houston in coaching victories.

Holgorsen went 61-41 in his eight years at West Virginia with a pair of 10-win seasons and seven bowl trips. At Houston, Holgorsen was 31-28 with three bowl appearances in five years.

In addition to being a successful head coach, Holgorsen boasts an impressive resume as an offensive coordinator. In his seven seasons as a coordinator, Holgorsen's offenses have had an average national finish of 11th in passing offense and 14th in total offense and scoring.

In his first full season as Nebraska's offensive coordinator in 2025, Big Ten Running Back of the Year Emmett Johnson became the first Husker offensive player to be a first-team All-American in 24 years and quarterback Dylan Raiola set Nebraska's season completion percentage record.

NEBRASKA (2024-25)

Holgorsen served as NU's offensive coordinator for the final four games of the 2024 season. He helped the Huskers to a win over Wisconsin for the first time since 2012 and a bowl victory for the first time since 2015. In the 44-25 win over Wisconsin, Nebraska posted its highest point total since 2021.

In 2025, running back Emmett Johnson led the nation in scrimmage yards per game, when he became the first Husker offensive player to be selected as a first-team All-American since 2001. Dylan Raiola also set Nebraska's season completion percentage record in 2025. As a team, NU set season records for completion percentage and fewest turnovers and scored 50 points in back-to-back games for the first time in 18 years.

HEAD COACHING CAREER

HOUSTON: Holgorsen was Houston's head coach for five seasons from 2019 to 2023. He posted a 31-28 record with the Cougars, ranking fifth in school history in wins. Houston made three bowl games in his five seasons.

Houston made it to a bowl game in Holgorsen's second season in 2020. The following season, the Cougars played in the American Athletic Conference Championship Game, defeated Auburn in the Birmingham Bowl and finished with a 12-2 record and a No. 17 final ranking. The 12 victories ranked third in school history.

Holgorsen led Houston to eight wins in 2022 and a second consecutive bowl victory. In his final season at Houston in 2023, the Cougars posted a 4-8 record in their first season in the Big 12 Conference.

WEST VIRGINIA: Holgorsen's first head coaching job was at West Virginia, where he guided the Mountaineers to a 61-41 record in eight seasons from 2011 to 2018, including 10 wins over ranked opponents.

His 61 victories in Morgantown rank second in program history. Holgorsen led West Virginia to a winning record in seven of his eight seasons with seven bowl appearances. The Mountaineers were ranked in at least one weekly poll in seven of his eight seasons.

Holgorsen had an impressive debut season as a head coach in 2011. West Virginia finished with a 10-3 record, a Big East Conference championship and a No. 17 final ranking. The Mountaineers ended the year with a 70-33 Orange Bowl victory over No. 14 Clemson, setting an FBS record for the most points scored in a bowl game.

Holgorsen led West Virginia back to a bowl game in 2012, when the Mountaineers climbed as high as No. 5 in the AP poll. Following a 4-8 record in 2013, West Virginia went 7-6 in 2014. Holgorsen posted an 8-5 record with a bowl victory in 2015.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has been a coordinator at Texas Tech, Oklahoma State & Nebraska
- His offenses have an average national finish of 11th in passing yards
- His offenses have an average national finish of 14th in total offense
- His offenses have an average national finish of 14th in scoring
- Won 92 games in 13 seasons as a college head coach

- Coached the FBS all-time leader in passing yards & total offense
- Coached the only two players to be two-time Biletnikoff Award winners

In 2016, the Mountaineers went 10-3 and finished the season ranked 18th, and Holgorsen was named the 2016 AFCA District 4 Regional Coach of the Year. Holgorsen's 2017 squad finished with a 7-6 record. In his final season at West Virginia in 2018, the Mountaineers climbed as high as No. 6 before finishing with a No. 20 ranking following an 8-4 campaign.

ASSISTANT COACHING CAREER

OKLAHOMA STATE: Holgorsen spent the 2010 season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Oklahoma State, helping the Cowboys to an 11-2 record and a No. 13 final ranking. OSU ranked second nationally in passing offense and third in scoring and total offense. Those were huge improvements from the offense Holgorsen inherited, which ranked 99th in passing, 70th in total offense and 56th in scoring in 2009.

Quarterback Brandon Weeden ranked fourth nationally in passing and Justin Blackmon led the nation in receptions per game and ranked second in receiving yards per game en route to winning the Biletnikoff Award.

HOUSTON: Holgorsen spent two seasons as the Cougars' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2008 and 2009. Houston ranked first or second nationally in passing offense and total offense both seasons, while finishing in the top 10 in scoring offense both years.

In his first season in 2008, Houston ranked second nationally in passing offense, second in total offense and 10th in scoring. Case Keenum led the nation in total offense and ranked second nationally in passing yards and passing touchdowns, trailing Graham Harrell in both categories, whom Holgorsen had coached the previous season at Texas Tech.

In 2009, Houston led the nation in passing, total offense and scoring. Keenum led the nation in total offense and threw for 5,671 yards, a total that led the country and ranked fourth in FBS history. Keenum finished his career as the all-time FBS leader in passing yards (19,217), touchdown passes (155) and total offense (20,144 yards).

TEXAS TECH: Holgorsen spent eight seasons on Mike Leach's Texas Tech staff. Holgorsen was the inside receivers coach for his first five seasons on staff. He retained that role while being promoted to co-offensive coordinator in 2005 and 2006 and then offensive coordinator for his final year in 2007.

Holgorsen's inside receivers helped Texas Tech average nearly 380 passing yards per game in his five seasons as the group's position coach from 2000 to 2004. Texas Tech ranked in the top 11 nationally in passing yards in each of his five seasons and led the nation three times.

As co-offensive coordinator in 2005, Holgorsen's offense led the country in passing, ranked fourth in scoring and sixth in total offense. Cody Hodges ranked second nationally in passing yards and total offense. In 2006, the Red Raiders ranked third nationally in passing offense, sixth in total offense and 13th in scoring. Graham Harrell was third nationally in passing yards.

In 2007, Texas Tech led the country in passing, ranked second in total offense and seventh in scoring.Michael Crabtree won the Biletnikoff Award, leading the nation with 134 catches, 1,962 receiving yards and 22 touchdowns. His receiving yardage total still ranks third all-time in FBS history and is the highest ever by a Power Conference player. \

WINGATE: Holgorsen spent the 1999 season as the quarterbacks and receivers coach at Wingate, a Division II program in North Carolina. In his lone season, quarterback Brian Baughman established a school record with 283 completions and 3,331 passing yards. Baughman was a semifinalist for the Harlan Hill Trophy as the Division II Player of the Year, while two of Holgorsen's receivers ranked second and third nationally in receiving yards per game.

MISSISSIPPI COLLEGE: Holgorsen was the quarterbacks, receivers and special teams coach at Mississippi College for three seasons from 1996 to 1998. Receiver Vance Audry set school records in career receptions and career receiving yards while Matt Murphy ranked second in program history with 18 career touchdowns.

VALDOSTA STATE: Holgorsen began his coaching career working with the quarterbacks, receivers and special teams at Valdosta State for three seasons from 1993 to 1995 under head coach Hal Mumme. Holgorsen helped Valdosta State to an 11-win season and a trip to the second round of the NCAA Division II playoffs in 1994. That season, the Blazers set school records for completions (594) and passing yards (4,389).

PLAYING CAREER (IOWA WESLEYAN)

Holgorsen was a wide receiver at Iowa Wesleyan from 1990 to 1992, where Mike Leach was the offensive coordinator in 1990 and 1991.

PERSONAL

Holgorsen earned his bachelor's degree from Iowa Wesleyan in 1993 and a master's degree in health and physical education from Valdosta State in 1995. He has three children, McClayne, Logan and Karlyn.

E.J. Barthel is in his fourth season as Nebraska's running backs coach in 2026. Barthel is in his seventh season on Matt Rhule's staff overall, having previously coached under Rhule with the Carolina Panthers and at Temple. Barthel also serves as Nebraska's director of football evaluation.

Barthel is in his 13th season of coaching in 2026, and he has put together a diverse resume having served in recruiting and player development roles in addition to being a running backs coach. Barthel has Big Ten experience at Nebraska, Rutgers and Penn State, and he coached for two seasons in the National Football League.

A New Jersey native, Barthel has a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the Northeast and specifically the New Jersey area. In his lone season at Penn State, he helped the Nittany Lions secure the No. 6 recruiting class in 2018.

As a running backs coach, he has helped both Nebraska and UConn rank in the top 35 nationally in rushing over the past four seasons. In 2025, Barthel produced a first-team All-America running back at Nebraska for the first time in more than 40 years, as Emmett Johnson led the Big Ten in rushing and led the nation in scrimmage yards per game.

NEBRASKA (2023-25)

Nebraska's running back room was hit hard by injuries during Barthel's first season in 2023. Despite the injuries, the Huskers averaged 176.8 rushing yards per game, ranking second in the Big Ten in rushing.

Gabe Ervin Jr. and Rahmir Johnson - the top two running backs on Nebraska's depth chart - were both lost to season-ending injuries in the third game of the year. Ervin and Johnson each averaged more than 5.0 yards per carry in their three games, which included two road games against Power Five opponents. Following the injuries to Ervin and Johnson, Barthel helped Anthony Grant and Emmett Johnson each rush for more than 400 yards. Johnson rushed for 411 yards on 90 carries after entering the year with zero career carries. Barthel also helped Joshua Fleeks make a mid-season transition from wide receiver to running back, and Fleeks produced a 77-yard touchdown run against Michigan, the first run of 70 yards allowed by the Wolverines in four seasons.

In 2024, Nebraska's running backs put up big numbers on the ground and in the receiving game. Dante Dowdell scored 12 rushing touchdowns, the most by a Husker running back in six seasons. Dowdell rushed for 614 yards while Emmett Johnson had 598 rushing yards, as both players set career highs in rushing yards. Johnson also caught 39 passes, the fourth-most season receptions by a running back in program history and the most in 18 years. Johnson also led Nebraska with 908 all-purpose yards. Barthel helped Rahmir Johnson earn MVP honors in the Pinstripe Bowl, when Johnson reached 1,000 career rushing yards.

Emmett Johnson had a historic junior season under Barthel in 2025. Johnson rushed for 1,451 yards and 12 touchdowns and added 46 receptions for 370 yards and three scores. Johnson led the nation in scrimmage yards per game (151.8) and all-purpose yards per game (151.8), ranked second in total yards from scrimmage (1,821) and receptions by a running back (46), fourth in rushing yards (1,451) and rushing yards per game (120.9), sixth in carries (251), 11th in receiving yards by a running back (370) and 17th in total touchdowns (15).

Johnson was selected as the Big Ten Running Back of the Year and a first-team All-American for his performance in 2025. He became the first Husker running back to be a first-team All-American since Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier in 1983.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Coached 2025 Big Ten Running Back of the Year Emmett Johnson
- An All-American, Johnson led the nation in scimmage yards per game
- Johnson led the Big Ten & ranked 4th nationally in rushing in 2025
- Nebraska ranked No. 2 in Big Ten in rushing in 2023
- Helped UConn to its most wins in a dozen years in 2022
- UConn's Devontae Houston was 14th nationally in yards per carry in 2022
- William & Mary was the most improved FCS rushing team in 2019
- Coached 2018 MEAC Rookie of the Year Dedrick Parson at Howard
- Helped Penn State sign the nation's No. 6 recruiting class
- Two years of NFL coaching experience

BEFORE NEBRASKA

UCONN: The UConn Huskies went 6-6 in the regular season in Barthel's lone year as the running backs coach on Jim Mora's staff in 2022. The six wins were a marked improvement, as UConn had not won more than three games in a season since 2015.

Barthel's running backs helped UConn rush for 2,339 yards with 18 rushing touchdowns in 12 games. The Huskies ranked 33rd nationally in rushing offense. Individually, Victor Roza and Devontae Houston each rushed for more than 500 yards. Roza ranked 33rd nationally with 11 rushing touchdowns, while Houston was 14th nationally with an average of 6.88 yards per carry.

CAROLINA PANTHERS: Barthel coached with Rhule for two seasons with the Carolina Panthers in 2020 and 2021. Barthel assisted the coaching staff, focusing on the running backs and offensive line, while also spending time in the personnel department.

WILLIAM & MARY: Barthel spent one season at William & Mary as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator in 2019. He made an immediate impact on the running game during his time with the Tribe, as William & Mary was the most improved rushing team in the FCS in Barthel's lone season.

Led by Barthel's running backs, the Tribe rushed for 2,232 yards in 2019 after rushing for only 553 yards in 2018. William & Mary posted an increase of 130.7 rushing yards per game from the 2018 to the 2019 season, a total that led the FCS by a wide margin. The Tribe ranked 30th nationally in rushing offense in 2019, an increase of 93 spots from the previous season, when the team ranked next-to-last (123rd) in the FCS in rushing.

William & Mary's yards-per-carry average improved from 1.8 in 2018 to 4.2 in 2019, and the Tribe rushed for 26 touchdowns in 2019 after running for only five scores in 2018. William & Mary also set a school record with 462 rushing yards against Rhode Island during the 2019 season.

ALBANY/HOWARD: After a short stint at Albany during the offseason, Barthel transitioned into a coaching role as the running backs coach at Howard in 2018. Under his direction, the Bison led the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) in rushing with 192.8 yards per game. Additionally, he helped standout freshman Dedrick Parson garner MEAC Rookie of the Year and second-team All-MEAC accolades. Parson led the league in yards per carry (5.65), and he ranked second in rushing touchdowns (9) and third in rushing yards per game (70.6).

PENN STATE: Prior to his season at Howard, Barthel served as recruiting coordinator for one season at Penn State in 2017. He helped the Nittany Lions secure the nation's No. 6 recruiting class, according to 247 Sports.

TEMPLE: Barthel spent one season on Rhule's staff at Temple in 2016, serving as the Owls' coordinator of on-campus recruiting. He was promoted to director of player personnel following the 2016 season before he left for Penn State.

RUTGERS: Barthel began his career at the collegiate level working in football operations and recruiting at Rutgers, where he spent three seasons as a player.

PRIVATE BUSINESS: Before getting into coaching, Barthel ran Explosive Training Systems from 2009 to 2014, a gym in New Jersey that trained many of the state's top high school football players.

PLAYING CAREER (RUTGERS/UMASS)

Barthel was a running back at Rutgers for three seasons from 2003 to 2005, before transferring to UMass for two seasons in 2006 and 2007. After graduation, he was offered a tryout with the New York Giants in 2009 and later became a running back for the United Football League's Las Vegas Locomotives.

PERSONAL

A native of East Rutherford, N.J., Barthel earned his degree from UMass in 2008.

Corey Brown is in his first season as Nebraska's defensive line coach in 2026. Brown boasts 20 years of experience as a defensive assistant, including 18 seasons as defensive line coach.

Brown is known for producing defensive lines that excel at creating pressure to disrupt opposing offenses. Before coming to Nebraska, Miami (Ohio) ranked in the top 35 nationally in sacks in two of Brown's final three seasons, which also helped the RedHawks finish in the top 15 nationally in scoring defense twice.

Brown is also a proven developer of talent. In his three seasons on the Miami (Ohio) staff before he came to Nebraska, Brown produced a different first-team all-conference defensive lineman each year. Brown has also coached a player who ranked in the top 25 nationally in either sacks or tackles for loss each of his last three seasons.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

MIAMI (OHIO): Brown coached at Miami (Ohio) for a total of seven seasons over two different stints on the RedHawk staff. He served as the defensive line coach from 2023 to 2025 and from 2014 to 2017.

Brown's defensive line helped Miami rank 14th nationally with 105 combined sacks from 2023 to 2025. In two of his final three seasons, Brown coached a defensive lineman who ranked in the top 25 nationally in sacks. Miami also had a top-15 scoring defense in two of Brown's final three seasons on staff.

In his seven total seasons at Miami, Brown produced eight all-conference linemen who combined for 10 all-conference awards. In his final three seasons, Brown's linemen combined for five all-conference accolades with a different lineman named to the All-MAC first team each season.

In 2025, Brown's unit helped Miami rank 12th nationally with an average of 2.9 sacks per game. Adam Trick was a first-team all-conference pick after totaling 12.5 tackles for loss and 8.5 sacks, ranking 23rd nationally in sacks.

Brown coached two all-conference defensive linemen during the 2024 season, when the RedHawks ranked 15th nationally in scoring defense. Brian Ugwu ranked 25th nationally with 14.5 TFLs.

In 2023, three of Brown's defensive linemen had at least 8.0 sacks and finished in the top five in the MAC in sacks with first-team all-conference pick Caiden Woulllard ranking 25th nationally in sacks. The disruption of the defensive line helped the RedHawks rank eighth nationally in scoring defense, and Miami allowed just 86 points in eight conference games, the fewest allowed by a MAC team since 2000.

Brown also spent four seasons coaching the Miami defensive line from 2014 to 2017. He coached four players to a total of five all-conference accolades in his first stint at Miami, and the RedHawks totaled 89 sacks in his four seasons.

SOUTH DAKOTA: Brown spent two seasons at South Dakota in 2021 and 2022, when Rob Aurich was the Coyotes' defensive coordinator. Brown coached the defensive line in each of his two seasons and was the defensive run game coordinator in 2022. Brown's defensive line helped South Dakota total 52 sacks in his two seasons.

Brown helped South Dakota rank 21st in the FCS in sacks and 23rd in scoring defense in 2021, when the Coyotes hosted an FCS playoff game for the first time in program history.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Miami (Ohio) ranked 14th nationally with 105 sacks from 2023-25
- The RedHawks were 12th nationally in sacks in 2025
- Miami (Ohio) ranked 14th nationally in scoring defense in 2024
- The RedHawks were 8th nationally in scoring defense in 2023
- In 2023, Miami allowed the fewest points in MAC play since 2000
- Had a player rank in the top 25 nationally in sacks in 2023 and 2025
- His Miami linemen earned 10 all-conference awards in eight seasons
- Coached a different 1st-team All-MAC lineman in 2023, 2024 & 2025
- South Dakota ranked 21st in the FCS in sacks in 2021
- Helped Notre Dame play in the National Championship Game in 2012

CORNELL COLLEGE: Brown was the defensive line coach at Cornell College in Iowa in 2020, but the Rams did not play a game that season due to the pandemic.

RUTGERS: Brown gained coaching experience in the Big Ten as Rutgers' defensive line coach for two seasons in 2018 and 2019. Wil Previlon earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten honors and was named the Scarlet Knights' defensive MVP in 2019.

NOTRE DAME: Brown's first coaching stint at the FBS level came as a defensive graduate assistant at Notre Dame in 2012 and 2013. In 2013, Notre Dame ranked 15th nationally in passing defense, 27th in scoring defense and 31st in total defense. The Fighting Irish were second nationally in scoring defense in 2012 and also ranked seventh in total defense, 11th in rushing defense, 22nd in sacks and 25th in passing defense. That season Notre Dame finished with a 12-1 record and lost in the BCS National Championship Game.

IOWA WESTERN CC: Brown spent four seasons at Iowa Western Community College from 2008 to 2011, coaching the defensive line and serving as the strength and conditioning coach each season. Brown was there at the inception of the Reiver program, which played its first season in 2009 and won its first conference title in 2010 and first region championship in 2011.

NORTH IOWA AREA CC: Brown began his coaching career as the defensive line and strength and conditioning coach at North Iowa Area Community College in 2006 and 2007.

PLAYING CAREER (IOWA)

Brown was a defensive lineman at Iowa from 1995 to 1999. He started all 11 games as a senior and won the Hawkeyes' hustle award. Brown went on to play professionally in the AFL2, helping the Quad City Steamwheelers to back-to-back championships.

PERSONAL

Brown earned his degree in sociology/human relations from the University of Iowa in 2000. He and his wife, Susan, have one son, Blaze, and two daughters, Erin and Kayla.

Rob Dvoracek is in his fourth season as Nebraska's linebackers coach in 2026. Dvoracek came to Nebraska after spending two seasons coaching in the National Football League, and he has spent eight of his 10 seasons on a Matt Rhule staff.

A talented young coach, Dvoracek has experience at two Power Four programs in addition to being an NFL assistant. He also boasts previous experience being part of a program rebuild, as Dvoracek spent two years at Baylor during the Bears' three-year turnaround from a one-win season in 2017 to an 11-win season in 2019.

Nebraska has ranked in the top 30 nationally in total defense in each of Dvoracek's first three seasons on staff. The Huskers are one of only five teams in the country who ranked in the top 30 in total defense in 2023, 2024 and 2025. Dvoracek's ability to develop players helped key Nebraska's defensive success, as he helped a different former walk-on earn All-Big Ten honors in both 2023 and 2024.

NEBRASKA (2023-25)

Dvoracek has been a key reason Nebraska has excelled defensively in his three seasons on staff. Over the three-year stretch from 2023 to 2025, Nebraska ranks 12th nationally in total defense, 13th in pass defense, 21st in rushing defense and 22nd in scoring defense. Nebraska has held 42 percent of its opponents to 14 or fewer points in Dvoracek's three seasons on staff.

In his first season at Nebraska in 2023, Dvoracek and his linebackers helped NU finish with its best rushing defense, total defense and scoring defense in the Big Ten era (since 2011). Dvoracek's linebackers were a key part of a stout Nebraska defense in 2023. The Blackshirts ranked eighth nationally in rushing defense, allowing the program's fewest rushing yards per game (92.9) since 1999. The Husker defense also ranked 11th in total defense and 13th in scoring defense, posting the program's highest national finish in those categories since 2010 and 2011, respectively.

The Husker linebacking corps featured four of Nebraska's six leading tacklers in 2023. Luke Reimer, a third-team All-Big Ten selection, battled injuries to record 48 tackles in 2023, including 7.5 tackles for loss and 5.0 sacks. Javin Wright flourished under Dvoracek's coaching, ranking second on the team with 51 tackles after entering the year with nine tackles in his first four seasons. John Bullock saw similar success, totaling 50 tackles after recording six tackles in his first four seasons. Nick Henrich added 42 tackles before suffering a season-ending injury. The quartet of Reimer, Wright, Bullock and Henrich combined for 191 tackles, 16.0 TFLs and 9.0 sacks.

In 2024, Dvoracek helped Nebraska rank eighth nationally in rushing defense, 17th in scoring defense and 18th in total defense. Bullock completed his journey from walk-on to all-conference performer in his final season, as he was an honorable-mention All-Big Ten selection. Bullock set career highs with 70 tackles, 10.0 tackles for loss, 4.0 sacks, five pass breakups and one interception, which he returned for a touchdown.

In 2025, Wright had a career season en route to honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades. He led Nebraska with 86 tackles, 9.0 tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks. Wright recorded 76 tackles in Big Ten play, a total that ranked fifth in the league. Vincent Shavers Jr. also had a strong season under Dvoracek's tutelage, as the sophomore totaled career highs of 61 tackles and 7.5 TFLs.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

CAROLINA PANTHERS: Dvoracek spent the 2021 and 2022 seasons as part of Rhule's staff with the Carolina Panthers. Dvoracek served as a coaching assistant in 2021 and a defensive assistant in 2022. His work with the Panther defense helped Carolina rank second in the NFL in total defense in 2021.

LEHIGH: Dvoracek spent the 2019 and 2020 seasons as the defensive ends and outside linebackers coach at Lehigh. In 2019, the Mountain Hawks allowed 14 fewer points and 100 fewer yards per game than in 2018 while recording 14 more sacks. Lehigh ranked 10th in the FCS in first downs allowed, 20th in scoring defense (21.4), 26th in rushing defense (130.5) and 28th in total defense (346.3). Individually, Dvoracek helped defensive end Mikhari Sibblis earn freshman All-America honors.

The 2020 season was cut short due to the pandemic, as Lehigh played only a three-game schedule in the spring of 2021, when the defense allowed only 252.7 yards and 15.3 points per game.

BAYLOR: After playing one season for Rhule at Temple and then serving as a student assistant for the Owls, Dvoracek followed Rhule to Baylor. Dvoracek spent two seasons on the Bears' staff as a defensive quality control coach. He helped Rhule lay the foundation for Baylor's resurgence in his two seasons. After a 1-11 season in 2017, the Bears went 7-6 in 2018 with a bowl victory.

PLAYING CAREER (TEMPLE)

Dvoracek was a linebacker at Temple for two seasons in 2012 and 2013 before suffering a career-ending injury. He played for Rhule in 2013 and then served as a student assistant following his injury. Dvoracek was a two-year letterwinner for the Owls who recorded 31 career tackles with 4.0 tackles for loss, 1.0 sack and three passes defended.

PERSONAL

Dvoracek earned his bachelor's degree in adult and organizational development from Temple in 2016 and his master's degree in educational leadership in 2017. He and his wife, Nicole, have a daughter, Reese, and a son, Jordan.

Nick Humphrey is in his second season on the Nebraska staff in 2026 and his first as co-special teams coordinator. Humphrey served as a special teams analyst with the Huskers in 2025.

Humphrey has coached in both the SEC and Big Ten in his young career, and he also has playing experience in the SEC as a linebacker and special teams standout at Tennessee.

In his first season at Nebraska in 2025, Humphrey helped the Huskers rank in the top 15 in six special teams categories. NU was a top-15 unit in both punt returns and punt return defense and kickoff returns and kickoff return defense.

NEBRASKA (2025)

Humphrey served as a special teams analyst for Nebraska in 2025. The Huskers ranked ninth nationally in blocked punts in 2025, 10th in blocked kicks, 13th in punt return defense, kickoff returns and kickoff return defense and 15th in punt returns. NU allowed only 23 punt return yards to its opponents, the fewest total in 31 years.

Individuals also put up impressive numbers in 2025. Jamir Conn ranked second nationally in blocked kicks, Kenneth Williams was sixth in kickoff return touchdowns and Jacory Barney Jr. was 13th in punt returns and 15th in combined kick returns. Williams and Barney each earned All-Big Ten accolades as a returner.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

TENNESSEE: Humphrey was a special teams graduate assistant at Tennessee in 2024, when the Volunteers played in the College Football Playoff. Tennessee ranked 20th nationally in blocked kicks and 34th in net punting in 2024. Individually, Jordan Ross ranked fourth nationally in punt return touchdowns, Max Gilbert was 17th in field goals per game and Jackson Ross was 25th in punting.

PLAYING CAREER (TENNESSEE)

Humphrey was a linebacker at Tennessee from 2017 to 2022. He played in 22 games with the Vols, totaling nine tackles. Humphrey made his mark as a key special teams member and recorded nine career tackles.

PERSONAL

Humphrey earned his undergraduate degree in supply chain management from Tennessee and his master of business administration in finance.

BRETT MAHER

[SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR]

3RD SEASON | 3RD CAREER SEASON

NEBRASKA (2024-26)
» Special Teams Coord. (2026)
» Assistant Special Teams (2025)
» Special Teams Analyst (2024)

Brett Maher is in his third season on the Nebraska coaching staff in 2026 and his first season as special teams coordinator. In 2025, Maher was the assistant special teams coach and during the 2024 season, Maher joined the staff in season and worked with the Husker place-kickers and punters.

Maher entered the coaching ranks following an outstanding collegiate and professional career. As a punter and place-kicker at Nebraska, Maher was both the Big Ten Kicker and Punter of the Year in 2011, and he was a two-time Big Ten Kicker of the Year.

Maher went on to kick five seasons in the NFL, where he made 80 percent of his field goals. At the conclusion of his career, Maher held NFL records for most 60-yard field goals in a season (2) and career (4). Maher also set five Dallas Cowboys records during his career, including making the longest field goal in franchise history (63 yards) and scoring the most points by a kicker in a season (137).

NEBRASKA (2024-25)

Maher served as Nebraska's assistant special teams coach in 2025 in his first full season of coaching. Maher helped kicker Kyle Cunanan make 61 of his 64 total kicks on the season, including 16-of-19 field goals.

Maher also contributed to Nebraska ranking ninth nationally in blocked punts in 2025, 10th in blocked kicks, 13th in punt return defense, kickoff returns and kickoff return defense and 15th in punt returns. NU allowed only 23 punt return yards to its opponents, the lowest total in 31 years.

Individuals also put up impressive numbers in 2025. Jamir Conn ranked second nationally in blocked kicks, Kenneth Williams was sixth in kickoff return touchdowns and Jacory Barney Jr. was 13th in punt returns and 15th in combined kick returns. Williams and Barney each earned All-Big Ten accolades as a returner.

Maher joined Nebraska mid-season in 2024. He helped John Hohl tie the Nebraska record for longest road field goal when Hohl made a 54-yard field goal at Ohio State. Hohl made nine of his final 10 field goals in 2024.

PLAYING CAREER (NEBRASKA/NFL)

A Nebraska native, Maher was Nebraska's starting punter and place-kicker during his Husker career. He was a two-time Big Ten Kicker of the Year and in 2011, Maher was both the Big Ten Kicker and Punter of the Year. As a senior in 2012, Maher made 20 field goals to rank second in school history while setting a Nebraska record with 119 points scored by a kicker. He was the Big Ten co-Kicker of the Year in 2012 and was also a first-team All-Big Ten selection as a kicker and a second-team all-conference pick as a punter. As a junior in 2011, Maher was the Big Ten Kicker and Punter of the Year. He made 19-of-23 field goals and averaged 41.4 yards per punt.

Maher spent five seasons in the NFL, where he made 80 percent of his career field goals. Maher made 111 career field goals, including 34 from 50 yards or longer. In 2018 with the Dallas Cowboys, Maher tied a franchise record for most field goals 50 yards or longer, a record he would break in 2022. In 2019, Maher made a 63-yard field goal to set the Cowboys' record for longest field goal in a game. In his final season as a Cowboy in 2022, Maher made 29-of-32 kicks during the regular season, including 9-of-11 from 50 yards or longer. He set a Cowboys single-season kicking record with 137 points and led the league with 78 touchbacks.

At the conclusion of his career, Maher held the NFL record for most career 60-yard field goals. Prior to the NFL, Maher spent time in the Canadian Football League.

PERSONAL

Maher earned his degree in secondary education - mathematics from Nebraska and was an Academic All-Big 12 selection.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped Kyle Cunanan make 61 of his 64 kicks in 2025
- Nebraska ranked in the top 15 nationally in six categories in 2025
- NU was 9th in blocked punts & 10th in blocked kicks
- The Huskers ranked 13th in kickoff returns & kickoff return defense
- Nebraska was also 13th in punt return defense in 2025
- John Hohl tied the NU record for longest road field goal in 2024
- Ended his career with the most 60-yard field goals in NFL history
- Set five Dallas Cowboys kicking records

Roy Manning is in his first season as defensive edges coach at Nebraska in 2026. Manning followed Husker defensive coordinator Rob Aurich to Lincoln after both coached on the San Diego State defensive staff in 2025.

Manning brings a wealth of experience to the Husker staff. He has spent 12 of his 15 seasons coaching in a Power Conference with experience on defensive staffs in the Big Ten, Big 12 and Pac-12. He has coached at three of the 10 winningest programs in college football history: Michigan, Nebraska and USC.

At San Diego State last season, Manning helped the Aztecs rank second in the country in pass efficiency defense, sixth in scoring defense and 11th in total defense.

Manning also brings a winning mentality to the Husker staff. He won three Big Ten titles as a player at Michigan and as a coach, Manning's teams have played in the conference championship game in three of his last six seasons, including winning two Big 12 titles and playing for one Pac-12 championship.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has coached on defensive staffs in the Big Ten, Big 12 and Pac-12
- Coached at 3 of the 10 winningest programs in college football history
- Has coached in conference championship game 3 of the last 6 years
- San Diego State ranked 6th nationally in scoring defense in 2025
- The Aztecs ranked 11th nationally in total defense in 2025
- His edge rushers helped SDSU rank 25th nationally in sacks in 2025
- USC ranked 19th nationally in sacks in 2022
- Helped Oklahoma win two Big 12 titles in three seasons
- Won three Big Ten titles as a player at Michigan (2000-04)
- Played three seasons in the NFL

BEFORE NEBRASKA

SAN DIEGO STATE: Manning spent the 2025 season as the defensive edges coach at San Diego State, which boasted one of the nation's top defenses in Manning's lone season on staff.

In 2025, San Diego State led the country with three shutouts and held eight of its 12 opponents to 10 or fewer points, including five opponents who were held out of the end zone. The three shutouts were the most in Mountain West Conference history. During the regular season when Manning was on staff, the Aztecs allowed only 266.7 yards and 12.6 points per game.

Overall, San Diego State ranked second in the country in pass efficiency defense in 2025, third in red zone defense, fifth in defensive touchdowns, sixth in scoring and pass defense, 10th in first downs defense, 11th in total defense, 13th in third-down defense, 14th in interceptions and 25th in sacks.

USC: Manning was the assistant head coach for defense and coached the outside linebackers at USC in 2022 and 2023. The Trojans won 19 games in Manning's two seasons on staff.

Manning's outside linebackers played a key role in USC ranking 24th nationally in tackles for loss in 2023. In 2022, USC ranked third nationally in interceptions, fifth in takeaways, 12th in defensive touchdowns and 19th in sacks. The outside linebackers contributed heavily to the disruptive defense, highlighted by Korey Foreman's interception that wrapped up USC's victory over UCLA that sent the Trojans to the Pac-12 Championship Game.

OKLAHOMA: Manning spent three seasons at Oklahoma, coaching the cornerbacks from 2019 to 2021. The Sooners won two Big 12 titles in Manning's three seasons on staff, posting a 32-6 record with a top-10 final ranking each year.

In 2021, Manning's cornerbacks helped lead an opportunistic Sooner defense that ranked fourth nationally in fumble recoveries, 15th in takeaways and 25th in defensive touchdowns. In a Big 12 championship season in 2020, Oklahoma ranked third nationally in interceptions and fourth in third-down defense thanks in large part to the play of Manning's cornerbacks.

OU allowed only 12 passing touchdowns in 2020, the fewest in the country by teams that played nine or more games. The Sooners were also Big 12 champions and a College Football Playoff semifinalist in 2019, when Oklahoma ranked third nationally in third-down defense.

Individually, Sooner defensive backs accounted for nine All-Big 12 awards in Manning's three seasons. Cornerback Tre Brown was a 2021 NFL Draft pick.

UCLA: Manning was the special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach at UCLA in 2018. The Bruins' special teams improved from 65th to 20th in the college football SP+ rankings in one season under Manning's tutelage, including ranking third nationally in kickoff returns in 2018.

WASHINGTON STATE: For three seasons from 2015 to 2017, Manning was the outside linebackers coach at Washington State. The Cougars won 26 games during Manning's time on staff and played in a bowl game three consecutive years for just the second time in program history.

In 2017, the outside linebackers helped Washington State rank eighth nationally with 103 tackles for loss and 16th with 38 sacks. The Cougars also ranked ninth nationally in passing defense and takeaways and 16th in total defense. In 2016, Washington State had the No. 29 rush defense in the country. In his first season on staff, Manning helped the Cougars rank eighth nationally in tackles for loss and 30th in sacks in 2015.

MICHIGAN: Manning had two coaching stints at Michigan, his alma mater. He was the Wolverines' cornerbacks coach in 2014 and the outside linebackers coach in 2013. Manning also served as an offensive graduate assistant in 2011, in his second season of coaching.

Manning helped key an impressive season for the Wolverine defense. Michigan ranked 110th nationally in total defense, 112th in passing defense and 108th in scoring defense in 2010, the season before Manning joined the staff. But with Manning's help, Michigan posted top-20 rankings in total defense, pass defense and scoring defense both his seasons on staff.

Manning was also on the Michigan staff in 2011 as an offensive graduate assistant who worked with the offensive line.

CINCINNATI: Manning also had two coaching stints at Cincinnati. He coached the Bearcat running backs in 2012 and served as a defensive graduate assistant in 2010.

In 2012, Manning helped the Bearcats lead the Big East with 201.5 rushing yards per game.

George Winn had the second-best rushing season in school history with 1,334 yards and 13 touchdowns, leading the conference in both categories.

Manning began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at Cincinnati in 2010.

PLAYING CAREER (MICHIGAN)

Manning was an outside linebacker at Michigan from 2000 to 2004. After redshirting in 2000, Manning played in 37 games with 10 starts over his final four seasons, totaling 73 tackles, 9.0 tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks. Manning helped Michigan to 46 wins in his five seasons, as the Wolverines won three Big Ten titles and earned a final ranking of 20th or better every year of his career.

Following his Michigan career, Manning spent three seasons in the NFL, including playing in 15 games for the Green Bay Packers in 2005 and five games with the Cincinnati Bengals in 2007. Manning was also a four-sport standout in high school, earning him a spot in the Saginaw (Mich.) Sports Hall of Fame.

PERSONAL

Manning earned his degree in general studies from Michigan in 2004. He and his wife, Candace, have one son, Malakai, and one daughter, Olivia.

Jamar Mozee is in his third season on the Nebraska staff in 2026. Mozee is in his first season as the Huskers' assistant head coach, earning a promotion after spending his first two seasons on staff as a senior football assistant.

Mozee has helped Nebraska to a winning record in each of his first two seasons, the first back-to-back winning seasons for the Huskers in a decade. NU has been ranked in at least one weekly poll in each of his two seasons.

Prior to Nebraska, Mozee was a successful high school coach in Missouri. As the head coach at Lee's Summit North High School for nine seasons from 2015 to 2023, Mozee won 64 games and was a three-time conference coach of the year. He led the Broncos to four conference championships and a pair of state semifinal appearances.

NEBRASKA (2024-25)

Mozee was a senior football assistant in his first two seasons on staff. He helped Nebraska to a 7-6 record in his first season in 2024. The Huskers posted their first winning season since 2016 and won a bowl game for the first time since 2015. Despite losing its starting quarterback in the ninth game of the season, Nebraska finished 7-6 again in 2025, marking the Huskers' first back-to-back winning seasons in a decade.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

UCF: Mozee had a brief stint as an analyst at UCF in 2024 before joining Nebraska.

LEE'S SUMMIT (MO.) NORTH HS: Mozee was the head coach at Lee's Summit North High School in Missouri from 2015 to 2023. He led the Broncos to four conference championships in the Suburban Gold and Suburban Silver conferences. Lee's Summit North reached the Missouri Class 6 semifinals in 2021 and 2022 and advanced to the quarterfinals in 2023.

Overall, Mozee guided Lee's Summit North to a 64-35 overall record and is the winningest coach in school history. The school had won only four games from 2012 to 2014 before his arrival. A three-time conference coach of the year, Mozee saw more than 140 of his players earn college scholarships following their prep careers. He coached five players who earned conference player-of-the-year honors including Keyon Mozee, Trey Baker, Cayden Green, Williams Nwaneri and Isaiah Mozee.

Before serving as the Lee's Summit North head coach, Mozee had experience as the school's offensive coordinator and quarterback coach in 2014.

ADDITIONAL HIGH SCHOOL COACHING: Mozee was an assistant coach at Park Hill South High School (2010-13) and William Chrisman High School (2007-10). He also served as the athletic director and head football coach at Faith Academy Christian Schools from 2005 to 2007.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped Nebraska to a winning record in his first two seasons
- Marked NU's first back-to-back winning seasons in more than a decade
- Coached high school football in Missouri for 19 seasons
- 11 seasons as the head coach of Lee's Summit North High School
- Tallied a 64-35 overall record at Lee's Summit North
- Winningest coach in school history

Marcus Satterfield is in his fourth season on Nebraska's staff in 2025. He served as the Huskers' offensive coordinator in 2023 and for the first nine games of the 2024 season before moving into the role of tight ends coach.

Satterfield is in his 10th season on a Matt Rhule staff, having coached under Rhule at each of Rhule's four head coaching stops. Satterfield is in his 28th season overall, including two years as the head coach of Tennessee Tech.

As an offensive coordinator, Satterfield helped South Carolina post impressive numbers in 2022, when the Gamecocks finished with the third-most passing yards in school history, the fourth-most points and sixth-most total yards. At Nebraska, Satterfield's offense ranked second in the Big Ten in rushing in 2023.

Satterfield also helped Thomas Fidone II get selected in the 2025 NFL Draft, becoming the first Husker tight end drafted since 2002.

NEBRASKA (2023-25)

Satterfield coordinated a Nebraska offense that averaged 176.8 rushing yards per game in 2023 to rank second in the Big Ten. The Huskers also had the 14th most-improved rushing offense in the country.

Nebraska's offense was fueled by explosive plays in 2023. NU led the Big Ten in runs of 40, 50, 60 and 70 yards, while ranking ninth nationally in runs of 40 yards or longer. Nebraska also ranked second in the Big Ten in offensive plays of 50 yards or longer. On the season, 60 percent of Nebraska's passing and receiving yards came from players who entered the year with zero career pass attempts or receptions.

Tight end Thomas Fidone II caught four touchdown passes in 2023, the most by a Husker tight end since 2010. Fidone set career highs with 36 receptions and 373 receiving yards in 2024. As offensive coordinator for the first nine games of the 2024 season, Satterfield helped true freshman quarterback Dylan Raiola complete 67.1 percent of his passes on the season for 2,819 yards. His passing total was the highest by a freshman in program history, and Raiola led all true freshmen nationally in passing yards and all freshmen in completion percentage. Jacory Barney Jr. set an NU freshman record with 55 receptions.

In 2025, former walk-on Luke Lindenmeyer started all 13 games at tight end and set career highs with 29 receptions, 312 receiving yards and two touchdowns, eclipsing his career totals entering the season in each of those categories. Lindemeyer was recognized as an honorable-mention All-Big Ten selection.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

SOUTH CAROLINA: Satterfield was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at South Carolina in 2021 and 2022. In 2022, his offense posted the third-most passing yards in school history (3,380), the fourth-most points (418) and the sixth-most total yards (4,925). Spencer Rattler threw for 3,026 yards, the sixth-highest total in program history.

The Gamecocks combined for 94 points and 1,008 yards of total offense in back-to-back wins over No. 5 Tennessee and No. 7 Clemson in his final two games. South Carolina racked up 606 yards in a 63-38 rout of the Volunteers before compiling 402 yards in a 31-30 upset over the Tigers.

In his first season in Columbia, Satterfield helped the Gamecocks to a seven-win campaign in 2021. Injuries forced South Carolina to use multiple quarterbacks during the season, as four different quarterbacks recorded a win as the starter. South Carolina amassed 543 yards of total offense in the Duke's Mayo Bowl win over North Carolina.

CAROLINA PANTHERS: Satterfield boasts NFL experience, as he spent one season with the Carolina Panthers as an assistant offensive line coach on Rhule's staff in 2020. The Panthers averaged 5.6 yards per play while passing for more than 4,100 yards and rushing for more than 1,700 yards.

BAYLOR: Satterfield was at Baylor in 2018 and 2019. He joined Rhule's staff as the director of recruiting in 2018 before joining the coaching staff as the tight ends coach for the 2019 season. The Bears' 2018 signing class was ranked in the top 30 nationally, but a re-rank of the class by The Athletic in 2023 concluded that Baylor had the nation's No. 14 recruiting class based on the players' collegiate careers.

In 2019, Satterfield helped Baylor to an 11-3 record that included the program's first Big 12 Championship Game appearance and a trip to the Sugar Bowl. Baylor's 11 wins were a school record at the time. His tight ends contributed to a passing attack that threw for more than 250 yards per game and a rushing attack that averaged over 165 yards per game.

EAST TENNESSEE STATE: Satterfield briefly served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at East Tennessee State in 2018, before he left to reunite with Rhule at Baylor.

TENNESSEE TECH: Satterfield was the head coach at Tennessee Tech in 2016 and 2017. In 2016, he led the Golden Eagles to their first winning conference season since 2011 with a 5-3 mark in the Ohio Valley Conference.

TEMPLE: Satterfield spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Temple from 2013 to 2015, where he helped guide the Owls to a conference divisional championship, a 10-win season, the school's first top-25 ranking in 36 years and a bowl appearance. The Owls appeared in the AP Top 25 Poll for a school-record seven weeks in 2015.

The Temple offense averaged nearly 30 points per game in 2015. In his first season as coordinator in 2013, the Temple offense averaged nearly 400 yards per game, which was the most by an Owl team since 1979. Satterfield tutored Freshman All-American P.J. Walker, who threw for 2,084 yards and 20 touchdowns in just seven starts in 2013.

CHATTANOOGA: In his second stint at Chattanooga, Satterfield worked as an offensive coordinator for four seasons from 2009 to 2012. He spent his first three years grooming an NFL Draft pick at quarterback. B.J. Coleman had an outstanding three-year career under Satterfield's tutelage before being drafted by the Green Bay Packers. Coleman set a school record with 52 career touchdown passes.

In 2010, Chattanooga ranked No. 8 nationally in passing offense (277 yards per game) and No. 11 with 4,730 yards of total offense, the third-highest mark in school history. The Mocs also ranked in the top 20 in the FCS with 31.5 points per game, the second-highest total in school history.

Receivers also shined in Satterfield's offense. Joel Bradford was recognized as a third-team All-American by the Associated Press in 2010. The previous year, Blue Cooper ranked sixth in the FCS with 84 receptions.

Satterfield also began his career at Chattanooga. He was a graduate assistant with the Mocs in 1999 and 2000.

UT MARTIN: Satterfield coached at UT Martin from 2006 to 2008, serving as the offensive coordinator in his first two seasons before being elevated to associate head coach and passing game coordinator in 2008. He helped the Skyhawks win the Ohio Valley Conference championship in 2006. The UT Martin offense boasted the top scoring offense in the conference in 2006 and led the league in total offense and scoring in 2007.

WESTERN CAROLINA: Satterfield spent one season as the wide receivers coach at Western Carolina in 2005, when Rhule was also on staff.

RICHMOND: In 2004, Satterfield coached the wide receivers at Richmond.

TENNESSEE: Satterfield spent two seasons as a graduate assistant under Phillip Fulmer at Tennessee in 2002 and 2003. The Volunteers compiled an 18-8 record in Satterfield's two years in Knoxville.

PLAYING CAREER (EAST TENNESSEE STATE)

Satterfield was a wide receiver and punter at East Tennessee State from 1995 to 1998, helping the Bucs to the FCS playoffs in 1996. He finished his career at ETSU with 124 receptions and 11 touchdowns.

PERSONAL

A native of Greenback, Tenn., Satterfield earned his degree from East Tennessee State in 1999. He and his wife Sarah have one daughter, Harper.

Daikiel Shorts Jr. is in his second season as Nebraska's wide receivers coach in 2026. He is reunited in Lincoln with Husker offensive coordinator Dana Holgorsen, who coached Shorts at West Virginia for four seasons and then had Shorts on his coaching staffs at West Virginia (2018) and Houston (2019-23).

Shorts is in his ninth season as a college coach, eight of which have been spent with Holgorsen. Before joining Nebraska, Shorts spent the previous four seasons as a wide receivers coach at Houston (2021-23) and Kentucky (2024).

At Houston, Shorts tutored Tank Dell who earned All-America honors after leading the nation with 109 catches in 2022. Shorts was a standout receiver himself who ranks fifth all-time at West Virginia in career receptions and sixth in career receiving yards.

In his first season at Nebraska, three of Shorts' receivers had five touchdown receptions. That marked the first time in Husker history that three players had five touchdown catches in a season.

NEBRASKA (2025)

Shorts' wide receivers combined for 17 touchdown catches in 2025 after NU wideouts had just 15 touchdown receptions in the 2023 and 2024 seasons combined. The wide receivers also helped Nebraska set a season record for completion percentage.

The Huskers' top three wide receivers in 2025 were all in either their first or second year in the program. That trio combined for 127 catches, 1,553 yards and 15 touchdowns. Jacory Barney Jr., Nyziah Hunter and Dane Key each had five touchdown receptions, the first time Nebraska has had three players catch five touchdown passes in a season.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

KENTUCKY: Shorts spent the 2024 season as the wide receivers coach at Kentucky. In his lone season with the Wildcats, Kentucky junior wideout Dane Key caught 47 passes for 715 yards to lead the UK passing attack. Key set career highs in receptions and yards under Shorts. Key finished with the third-most receiving yards (1,870) in Kentucky history despite playing only three seasons for the Wildcats.

HOUSTON: Shorts spent five seasons with Holgorsen at Houston from 2019 to 2023. Shorts began his tenure with the Cougars as the director of player development in 2019 and 2020 before coaching the wide receivers his final three seasons on staff.

Shorts' first season as a full-time assistant coach was in 2021, when he coached Tank Dell to first-team American Athletic Conference honors. Dell ranked eighth nationally in receiving touchdowns (12), 12th in receiving yards (1,329) and 13th in receptions (90). His breakout season came after Dell caught only 29 passes for 428 yards the previous season.

Dell had an even better 2022 season when he was a second-team All-American and a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award. He caught 109 passes for 1,398 yards and 17 touchdowns in his third and final season at Houston, leading the nation in receiving yards and receiving touchdowns and ranking second in receptions.

Dell had 199 receptions for 2,727 receiving yards and 29 touchdowns in two seasons with Shorts as his position coach. He led the nation in each of those three categories during the two-year span from 2021 to 2022.

Also under Shorts' tutelage, Matthew Golden set Houston's true freshman record in 2022 with seven receiving touchdowns. Golden also tied for first nationally among true freshmen with four receiving scores of 20-plus yards and was second among true freshmen in receiving touchdowns (7).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has been a receivers coach in the Big Ten, SEC & Big 12
- In 2025, NU had three receivers with 5 TD catches for the first time ever
- Dane Key finished 3rd in career receiving yards in Kentucky history
- Tank Dell was a 2022 All-American & Biletnikoff Award semifinalist
- Dell led the nation in receiving yards in 2022 (1,329)
- Dell also led the nation in receiving touchdowns in 2022 (17)
- Dell ranked second nationally with 90 receptions in 2022
- As a player, led West Virginia in receiving three of his four years
- Ranked 5th in WVU history in receptions & 6th in receiving yards
- Was a second-team All-Big 12 selection as a senior in 2016

In Houston's first season in the Big 12 in 2023, a young receiving corps made an immediate impact. According to Pro Football Focus, five of the league's top 11 graded underclassmen wide receivers came from Houston.

WEST VIRGINIA: Following an outstanding playing career at West Virginia, Shorts first ventured into coaching as a program assistant with the Mountaineers in 2018.

PLAYING CAREER (WEST VIRGINIA)

Before entering the coaching ranks, Shorts was a standout receiver under Holgorsen at West Virginia from 2013 to 2016. The four-year letterwinner led the Mountaineers in receiving in three of his four years. As a senior team captain in 2016, he earned second-team All-Big 12 honors and the Iron Mountaineer Award after totaling a team-high 63 receptions for 894 yards and five touchdowns.

He finished his collegiate career ranked fifth on the WVU career chart with 177 receptions and sixth with 2,263 receiving yards and 14 scores. He owns the program's freshman receptions record with 45. He was on the Buffalo Bills practice squad in 2017.

PERSONAL

Shorts, originally from Clayton, N.J., graduated from West Virginia in 2016 with a degree in multidisciplinary studies. During his career, he was named to the Garrett Ford Academic Honor Roll and the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.

Phil Snow is in his second season as Nebraska's associate head coach in 2026. Snow brings a wealth of experience to the Husker staff, including eight years in the National Football League.

Snow has served as a defensive coordinator at a total of eight schools plus three years coordinating the Carolina Panthers defense. He was successful as a defensive coordinator at three Power Four programs: Arizona State, UCLA, Washington and Baylor.

Snow will be coaching under Matt Rhule for the 12th season in 2026, and the pair's relationship dates back to 2001 at UCLA when Rhule was a defensive assistant and Snow was the defensive coordinator. Snow served as Rhule's defensive coordinator at Temple, Baylor and with the Carolina Panthers.

NEBRASKA (2025)

Snow helped Nebraska to a winning season in 2025 in his first season as the Huskers' associate head coach. He also played a pivotal role in Nebraska's switch to a new defensive scheme, serving as the Huskers' interim defensive coordinator for the Las Vegas Bowl, when Nebraska debuted its new scheme.

Nebraska ranked in the top 30 nationally in total defense in 2025, and the Huskers shut out Akron to post their first shutout in 16 seasons.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

CHICAGO BEARS: Snow spent the 2023 season as a senior defensive analyst with the Chicago Bears. The Bears led the NFL in rushing defense in 2023.

CAROLINA PANTHERS: Snow was Rhule's defensive coordinator with the Carolina Panthers for three seasons from 2020 to 2022. In 2021, the Panthers ranked second in the NFL in total defense. In 2020, Carolina led the NFL with 15 fumble recoveries and tied for the league lead with three fumble returns for touchdowns.

BAYLOR: Snow served as the defensive coordinator for each of Rhule's three seasons at Baylor from 2017 to 2019. Snow's defense played a major role in Baylor becoming the first team from a power conference to go from 11 losses to 11 wins in two or fewer seasons, as Baylor went 11-3 in his final season.

Baylor improved its national ranking in total defense, scoring defense, passing defense and rushing defense in each of Snow's three seasons. In his three seasons Baylor improved by 72 spots in total defense and 94 spots in scoring defense.

In 2019, Baylor reached the Big 12 Championship Game with the Bear defense finishing second nationally in takeaways, third in interceptions, eighth in sacks and 19th in total defense. Defensive tackle James Lynch finished fifth in the nation in sacks (13.5) and was named the Big 12's Defensive Player of the Year.

TEMPLE: Prior to Baylor, Snow spent four seasons as Rhule's defensive coordinator at Temple. Snow's defense helped Temple play in the first two conference championship games in program history, set a school record for season victories and post back-to-back 10-win seasons for the first time in Temple history.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Owns 28 years of experience as a defensive coordinator
- Has 20 years of experience coaching at a Power Four school
- Defensive coordinator at Arizona State, UCLA, Washington & Baylor
- Spent eight years coaching in the NFL
- Chicago Bears led the NFL in rushing defense in 2023
- Was the Carolina Panthers' defensive coordinator for three years
- Carolina ranked 2nd in the NFL in total defense in 2021
- Helped Cal, Arizona State, Temple & Baylor to 10-win seasons
- Coached the 2015 Chuck Bednarik & Bronko Nagurski winner
- Coached both a Big 12 & Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year

Snow's squad led the American Athletic Conference in defense in both 2015 and 2016. The 2016 defense ranked third nationally in total defense (282.5 ypg) and 11th in scoring (18.4 ppg) to help lead the Owls to an AAC championship and a 10-4 record. Snow coached All-AAC linebacker and eventual first-round NFL Draft pick Haason Reddick.

Snow also coached linebacker Tyler Matakevich, who won the 2015 Chuck Bednarik Award and the Bronko Nagurski Trophy. Matakevich was just the third consensus All-American in Temple history.

EASTERN MICHIGAN: Snow was the defensive coordinator at Eastern Michigan for three seasons from 2010 to 2012. In 2011, the Eagles ranked 34th nationally in total defense.

DETROIT LIONS: Snow's first coaching stint in the NFL came with the Detroit Lions for four seasons from 2005 to 2008. He was the linebackers coach for his final three seasons on staff after serving as a defensive assistant in 2005.

WASHINGTON: Snow coordinated the Washington defense for two seasons in 2003 and 2004. The Huskies ranked in the top 25 nationally in interceptions in 2003 and 17th in passing defense in 2004.

UCLA: Snow first coached with Rhule at UCLA in 2001, where Snow was the defensive coordinator and Rhule served as assistant defensive line coach. In 2001, the Bruins led the Pac-10 in total defense and ranked second in rushing and scoring defense. Linebacker Robert Thomas was the 2001 Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year.

ARIZONA STATE: The longest stop of Snow's coaching career came at Arizona State, where he was on staff for nine seasons from 1992 to 2000. He served as the defensive coordinator for his final five seasons after coaching the defensive backs in his first three years.

Snow's defense ranked in the top three in the Pac-10 in scoring defense in three of his final five seasons. In his second season as defensive coordinator in 1996, Arizona State went 11-1, won the Pac-10 title and finished with a No. 4 ranking. That season, the Sun Devils had a shut out victory over Nebraska, the only time the Huskers have been shut out spanning the 1992 through 2025 seasons.

In 1997, Arizona State led the Pac-10 in scoring defense behind by Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year Pat Tillman. In his final season in 2000, ASU led the nation in fumble recoveries and ranked third in takeaways.

CALIFORNIA: Snow coached the defensive backs at Cal for five seasons from 1987 to 1991. The Bears won back-to-back bowl games in his final two seasons, the first time in program history Cal had won a bowl game in consecutive years. The Bears finished with a top-10 ranking following a 10-2 record in 1991.

BOISE STATE: Snow spent four seasons on the staff at Boise State from 1982 to 1986, when the Broncos were a Division I-AA (now FCS) program. In 1986, Boise State ranked fourth nationally in rushing defense and sixth in total defense.

LANEY COLLEGE: Snow's first coaching job at the collegiate level came at Laney College in California. He spent three seasons at the school, serving as the defensive backs coach in his first season before being promoted to defensive coordinator for his final two seasons.

HIGH SCHOOL: Snow spent three seasons coaching high school football in California before entering the college ranks. He was an assistant coach at Winters High School in 1977 and 1978 after beginning his coaching career as an assistant at Berkeley High in 1976.

PLAYING CAREER (SACRAMENTO CITY COLLEGE/CAL STATE HAYWARD)

Snow was a quarterback at Sacramento City College and then California State Hayward in the 1970s.

PERSONAL

Originally from Winters, Calif., Snow earned his degree in physical education from Cal State Hayward in 1978. He and his wife Debra have two children, Phillip and Jacob.

Snow's nephew, Dustin Pedroia, played 14 seasons for the Boston Red Sox and is a member of the Red Sox Hall of Fame. Pedroia was the 2007 American League Rookie of the Year, the 2008 American League Most Valuable Player, a four-time All-Star, four-time Gold Glove winner and a two-time World Series champion.

Phil Simpson is in his second season on the Nebraska defensive staff in 2026. Simpson is in his second stint on Matt Rhule's Husker staff after serving as a defensive quality control coach in 2023.

In between his time at Nebraska, Simpson worked as a senior defensive analyst at Florida State in 2024. Simpson is in his third straight season coaching at a Power Four school following a nine-year high school coaching career in Florida.

As a college coach, Simpson has gained experience in the Big Ten and the ACC. In his first season at Nebraska in 2023, Simpson worked with a Husker defense that ranked in the top 15 nationally in rushing defense, total defense and scoring defense. The Huskers ranked in the top 30 nationally in total defense in 2025.

At the high school level, Simpson spent four years as the head coach at Homestead High School following five years as a high school assistant. Simpson led Homestead to a 23-4 record in his final two seasons with a trip to the state championship game in 2022.

NEBRASKA (2023; 2025)

Simpson coached Nebraska's outside linebackers in 2025. The play of his position group helped Nebraska rank third nationally in pass defense and 30th in total defense. The group also helped the Huskers post their first shutout in 16 years.

In his first season at Nebraska in 2023, Simpson served as a defensive quality control coach. He worked with a Husker defense that ranked in the top 15 nationally in rushing defense, total defense and scoring defense. Nebraska posted its best statistical defense of the Big Ten era during Simpson's first season in Lincoln.

Nebraska ranked eighth nationally by allowing only 92.9 rushing yards per game, the program's fewest rushing yards per game since 1999. The Blackshirts were 11th nationally in total defense, allowing the program's fewest yards per game (303.5) since 2009. Nebraska also allowed only 18.3 points per game, ranking 13th nationally in that category while allowing the program's fewest points per game since 2010. Nebraska held nine of its 12 opponents to 20 or fewer points, limited six opponents to fewer than 300 total yards and held eight opponents to fewer than 100 rushing yards. The Huskers also posted their highest sack total (32) since 2014 and most tackles for loss (76) since 2016.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

FLORIDA STATE: In between his time at Nebraska, Simpson worked as a senior defensive analyst at Florida State in 2024. His work helped the Seminoles rank second in the ACC in pass defense in his lone season in Tallahassee.

HOMESTEAD (FLA.) HS: Simpson was the head coach at Homestead High School for four seasons from 2019 to 2022. In his final season, Simpson led Homestead to the 2022 Class 3M state championship game, the school's first state title game. The Broncos went 23-4 over Simpson's final two seasons, and he was named the Miami Herald Coach of the Year in 2021.

SOUTHRIDGE (FLA.) HS: Simpson coached at Southridge High School for four seasons from 2015 to 2018, serving as the defensive line coach in his first year before being promoted to defensive coordinator for his final three seasons. He helped the Spartans to a state championship in 2016.

PALMETTO (FLA.) HS: Simpson began his coaching career as an assistant at Palmetto High School in 2014.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has coaching experience in the Big Ten & ACC
- Nebraska ranked in the top 30 nationally in total defense in 2025
- NU posted its best statistical defense of the Big Ten era in 2023

Lonnie Teasley is in his first season on the Nebraska coaching staff in 2026. He brings more than 15 years of experience to the Husker staff, including coaching stints in the SEC and the National Football League.

Before Nebraska, Teasley spent the previous five seasons at South Carolina, where the Gamecocks earned a final top-25 ranking twice in his final four seasons. Teasley's lines displayed the ability to both run and pass block as South Carolina ranked 35th nationally in rushing in 2024, one year after the Gamecocks were 23rd nationally in passing in 2023.

Teasley also spent two seasons on the offensive staff of the Baltimore Ravens. He worked with the Ravens' offensive line and had two offensive linemen combine for three Pro Bowl selections in his two seasons on staff.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has coached in the Big Ten, SEC & NFL
- Helped South Carolina rank 35th nationally in rushing in 2024
- One year earlier, the Gamecocks ranked 23rd nationally in passing
- Coached both an All-SEC pick & freshman All-American in 2023
- The 2022 squad ranked 3rd in school history in passing yards
- Also had the No. 4 scoring offense in South Carolina history in 2022
- The Gamecocks also had the No. 6 total offense in school history
- Arkansas-Pine Bluff ranked 13th in the FCS in sacks allowed in 2018
- Spent two seasons with the Baltimore Ravens
- Coached two Pro Bowl linemen in his two seasons

BEFORE NEBRASKA

SOUTH CAROLINA: Teasley spent five successful seasons at South Carolina from 2021 to 2025. He began his tenure with the Gamecocks as an offensive analyst in 2021 and 2022 before being elevated to an assistant coaching role as the offensive line coach from 2023 to 2025. Teasley's lines displayed the ability to both run and pass block as South Carolina ranked 35th nationally in rushing in 2024, one year after the Gamecocks were 23rd nationally in passing in 2023.

South Carolina averaged more than 400 yards of offense per game in 2024, a first for the program in 10 years. Right guard Torricelli Simpkins III was an All-SEC selection while left tackle Josiah Thompson was a true freshman All-American. In 2023, the line dealt with a rash of injuries, but Teasley was able to develop Trovon Baugh into earning a spot on the Freshman All-SEC team.

In 2022, Teasley served as an offensive analyst but took over on-field coaching duties with the offensive line early in the season. The Gamecocks won eight games and finished the year ranked in the top 25 while posting the third-most passing yards in school history, the fourth-most points and the sixth-most total yards. Jovaughn Gwyn was an All-SEC selection and an NFL Draft pick. In his first season on staff in 2021, Teasley helped South Carolina to a 7-6 record and a bowl victory.

NORTH CAROLINA CENTRAL: Teasley coached the offensive line at North Carolina Central for two seasons in 2019 and 2020. In 2019, Andrew Dale was an all-conference offensive lineman. North Carolina Central did not play during the 2020-21 season due to Covid.

ARKANSAS-PINE BLUFF: Teasley spent the 2018 season as the offensive line coach at Arkansas-Pine Bluff. His line excelled at protecting the passer, leading the conference and ranking 13th in the FCS in fewest sacks allowed. Two of his linemen were named to the all-conference first or second team.

TENNESSEE TECH: Teasley coached the Tennessee Tech offensive line for one season in 2017. That season Teasley coached under Marcus Satterfield, who was the Golden Eagles' head coach.

BALTIMORE RAVENS: Teasley coached in the National Football League for two seasons with the Baltimore Ravens in 2015 and 2016. He was an offensive staff assistant working with the Ravens' offensive line. Teasley worked with two Pro Bowl offensive linemen during his time in Baltimore.

TEMPLE: Teasley was previously on Matt Rhule's Temple staff in 2014. He served as an assistant offensive line coach, and the Owls posted their first ranked win in 16 seasons and first victory over an SEC opponent since 1938.

DELAWARE STATE: Teasley spent three seasons at Delaware State from 2011 to 2013. He coached the linebackers in 2013 after serving as a graduate assistant coaching the tight ends in 2011 and 2012. In his lone season as linebackers coach, the Hornets ranked 28th in the FCS in first down defense and 35th in tackles for loss. Teasley's tight ends helped Delaware State rank 25th in the FCS in passing in 2012.

BRUNSWICK (GA.) HIGH SCHOOL: Teasley began his career as an assistant football coach and special education teacher at Brunswick High School in Georgia.

PLAYING CAREER (HOFSTRA/WINSTON-SALEM STATE)

Teasley was an offensive lineman at Hofstra before finishing his career at Winston-Salem State.

PERSONAL

Teasley earned his degree in liberal arts from Winston-Salem State University in 2008. He and his wife, Carma, have three daughters, Elizabeth, Ava and Olivia.

Glenn Thomas is in his third season at Nebraska in 2025. Thomas has more than two decades of college and NFL coaching experience and serves as Nebraska's quarterbacks coach and co-offensive coordinator.

Thomas' impressive resume includes five seasons working with Matt Rhule at Temple and Baylor. In each of those stops, Thomas and Rhule developed record-setting quarterbacks in Temple's P.J. Walker and Baylor's Charlie Brewer.

Overall, Thomas is in his 18th season as a collegiate coach, serving at the coordinator level in 12 of those seasons. He has eight seasons of experience on NFL staffs and was influential in the development of NFL Pro Bowl quarterback Matt Ryan.

In his first season at Nebraska, Dylan Raiola became the first true freshman quarterback in Husker history to win a bowl game. Raiola set three Nebraska freshman passing records in 2024, then set Nebraska's season completion percentage record in 2025.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 12 seasons of coordinator experience at the collegiate level
- Has been on Matt Rhule's staff at Nebraska, Baylor & Temple
- Nebraska set a school record for team completion percentage in 2025
- Dylan Raiola set NU records for season & career completion percentage
- Coached Davey O'Brien Award semifinalist Charlie Brewer at Baylor
- Helped Baylor match the school record for wins (11) in 2019
- Baylor played in the 2019 Big 12 Championship Game & Sugar Bowl
- Was on staff for two of the three 10-win seasons in Temple history
- Eight years of NFL coaching experience
- Coached Pro Bowl quarterback Matt Ryan with the Atlanta Falcons

NEBRASKA (2024-25)

Thomas helped true freshman quarterback Dylan Raiola have a productive first year in Lincoln in 2024. Raiola started all 13 games while becoming the first true freshman quarterback in Nebraska history to lead his team to a bowl victory. He completed 275-of-410 passes (67.1 percent) for 2,819 yards and 13 touchdowns. Raiola set Nebraska freshman records for completions, completion percentage and passing yards. Overall, Raiola ranked third on Nebraska's season completion percentage chart and seventh on NU's season passing list.

Nationally, Raiola was one of the top freshman quarterbacks in 2024. A semifinalist for the Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year award, Raiola led all FBS freshmen and ranked 14th nationally in completion percentage. He also led all true freshmen and ranked third among all freshmen in passing yards.

In 2025, Raiola completed 72.4 percent of his passes, a Nebraska season record. Raiola also set a school record with 20 consecutive completions spanning the Cincinnati and Akron games. Raiola started the first nine games before suffering a season-ending injury. At the time of his injury, Raiola ranked fourth nationally in completion percentage, 19th in passing touchdowns and 21st in passing efficiency. Following Raiola's injury, Thomas helped true freshman TJ Lateef win his first start, as Lateef completed 13-of-15 passes for 205 yards and three touchdowns at UCLA.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

PITTSBURGH STEELERS: Thomas came to Lincoln after one season with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2023. Thomas served as an offensive assistant, helping the Steelers to an appearance in the AFC playoffs.

ARIZONA STATE: Before spending the 2023 season in Pittsburgh, Thomas was Arizona State's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2022. He oversaw a rushing attack that saw Xavier Valladay notch the 10th-best rushing mark in school history with 1,192 yards and 16 touchdowns. Additionally, under Thomas' tutelage, quarterbacks Trenton Bourget broke the ASU record for single-season completion percentage at 71.4 percent.

UNLV: Thomas was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at UNLV in 2020 and 2021. He helped lead the Rebels to several historical accomplishments during that time, including helping running back Charles Williams break the program's career rushing record and earn first-team All-Mountain West honors. In both of Thomas' seasons at UNLV he contributed to the development of the Mountain West Freshman of the Year. In 2020, wide receiver Kyle Williams achieved the honor, while quarterback Cameron Friel earned the award in 2021. Friel broke the school record for season completion percentage by a freshman, connecting on 62.4 percent of his passes.

BAYLOR: Thomas was the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Baylor from 2017 to 2019, assisting in transforming the program. In 2019 the Bears went 11-2 with a No. 7 ranking and a Sugar Bowl appearance. During Thomas' three years in Waco, quarterback Charlie Brewer developed into one of the top quarterbacks in school history, throwing 69 touchdowns in three seasons and being named a semifinalist for the 2019 Davey O'Brien Award.

TEMPLE: Thomas worked with Rhule at Temple in 2015 and 2016. In two years with the Owls, one as quarterbacks coach and the second as offensive coordinator, Thomas helped the program post the school's first back-to-back 10-win seasons and bowl berths and capture the 2016 American Athletic Conference title. The 2016 offense averaged 413.6 yards and 32.4 points per game under Thomas' direction. As quarterbacks coach in 2015, Thomas mentored junior QB P.J. Walker, who threw for 3,295 yards and 22 touchdowns.

ATLANTA FALCONS: Before his time at Temple, Thomas spent seven seasons in the NFL from 2008 to 2014. He was the Atlanta Falcons quarterbacks coach for three seasons after being promoted from offensive assistant. During the three seasons when Thomas guided quarterback Matt Ryan, the former first-round pick threw for more than 4,500 yards and 26 touchdowns in each campaign. Ryan earned Pro Bowl honors after the 2012 and 2014 seasons and cemented himself as the best quarterback in franchise history.

In 2012, Ryan set franchise single-season highs in passing yards (4,719), touchdown passes (32) and completion percentage (68.6). Atlanta's offense also featured perennial Pro Bowlers Roddy White and Julio Jones at wide receiver, Michael Turner at running back and legendary tight end Tony Gonzalez, an NFL Hall of Famer.

MIDWESTERN STATE: Thomas started his full-time college coaching career at Midwestern State in Wichita Falls, Texas, from 2001 to 2007. As a graduate assistant coaching wide receivers from 2001-04, the Mustangs won the Lone Star North Division Championship in his first season. Thomas oversaw the school's passing game and quarterbacks in the 2004 campaign and helped guide MSU to its first NCAA Division II playoff appearance in school history. Thomas transformed MSU's offense into a powerhouse while serving as coordinator from 2005-07. During his final season, the Mustang offense led the nation in total offense (550.0 yards per game) and rushing yards per game (317.0).

During his time at Midwestern State, he spent time with the Baltimore Ravens in the offseason. He assisted with wide receivers and quarterbacks (2002-03, 2005), and first met future Falcons coach Mike Smith during that time. The two also worked together during Smith's tenure with the Jacksonville Jaguars for one season in 2004.

PERSONAL

A native of Eastland, Texas, Thomas began his coaching career as a student assistant at Texas Tech. He earned his degree from Texas Tech in 1998 and received a master's degree from Midwestern State in 2004. Thomas and his wife Felicia have two children, Hayden and Dylan.

Geep Wade is in his first full season as Nebraska's offensive line coach in 2026. Wade got an early start to his Husker career, joining the staff following the 2025 regular season and coaching in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Wade is in his 23rd season of coaching in 2026. Before Nebraska, Wade coached the Georgia Tech offensive line from 2023 to 2025. His offensive line was dominant at both run blocking and pass blocking during his three seasons at Georgia Tech. From 2023-25, the Yellow Jackets ranked seventh nationally in fewest sacks allowed, ninth nationally in yards per carry and 13th in rushing yards per game.

Wade is also a proven developer of offensive linemen. In 11 seasons as a full-time FBS offensive line coach, Wade has seen his linemen combine for 23 all-conference awards.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

GEORGIA TECH: Wade coached the offensive line at Georgia Tech for three seasons from 2023 to 2025. The Yellow Jacket offensive line was among the nation's best run-blocking and pass-blocking units during Wade's time at the school.

Over his three seasons combined (2023-25), the Yellow Jackets ranked seventh nationally in sacks allowed (1.0 per game) and rushing yards per carry (5.3) and 15th in rushing yards per game (196.1). Georgia Tech ranked fifth among Power Four programs in rushing yards per game during Wade's three seasons.

Georgia Tech ranked in the top 15 nationally in sacks allowed in each of Wade's three seasons coaching the offensive line and twice were ranked in the top five. The Yellow Jackets also ranked in the top 30 nationally in yards per carry every season during Wade's tenure, including two seasons inside the top 15.

Individually, Wade's offensive linemen combined for nine all-conference awards and one first-team All-America accolade in his three seasons.

In 2025, Wade's offensive line paved the way for a Georgia Tech offense that ranked in the top 25 nationally in 10 categories. The Yellow Jackets were third nationally in sacks allowed, eighth in rushing yards per carry, 11th in total offense and 21st in rushing. Three of Georgia Tech's starting offensive linemen earned All-ACC recognition, helping quarterback Haynes King become the ACC Offensive Player of the Year.

In 2024, Georgia Tech ranked third nationally in sacks allowed, 30th in yards per carry and 32nd in rushing yards per game. Four of the Yellow Jackets' five starting linemen earned All-ACC honors, including guard Keylan Rutledge, who was the first Georgia Tech position player to earn first-team All-America honors in 10 years.

Wade's first season at Georgia Tech was in 2023, when the Yellow Jackets ranked eighth nationally in yards per carry, 12th in rushing yards per game and 15th in sacks allowed. Two of Wade's linemen were All-ACC selections.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has coached in the Big Ten, SEC & ACC
- More than two decades of experience as an offensive line coach
- Georgia Tech put up impressive stats in his three years (2023-25)
- Tech ranked 7th nationally in sacks allowed from 2023-25
- The Yellow Jackets were 9th in yards per carry from 2023-25
- Georgia Tech was 13th in rushing yards per game from 2023-25
- Tech ranked in the top 15 in sacks allowed each of Wade's three years
- Wade's linemen combined for nine all-conference awards
- Developed Keylan Rutledge into Tech's first All-American in 10 years
- Also worked at five schools who had top-25 passing offenses

APPALACHIAN STATE: Wade spent the 2022 season as the offensive line coach at Appalachian State. His unit was honored that season as a member of the Joe Moore Award (National Offensive Line of the Year) midseason honor roll. The Mountaineers ranked 21st nationally in rushing offense, 23rd in scoring offense and 26th in total offense during Wade's lone season at the school. Three of Appalachian State's starting offensive linemen earned All-Sun Belt Conference honors, including a pair of first-team selections.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN: Wade coached the offensive line at Georgia Southern in 2021. The Eagles ranked 32nd nationally in rushing.

UT MARTIN: Wade coached two different stints at UT Martin. He was the offensive line coach and offensive coordinator in 2018, when UT Martin ranked 11th in the FCS in completion percentage and 24th in passing offense.

Wade also spent four seasons at UT Martin from 2006 to 2009. He was the offensive line coach in each of his four seasons, and Wade served as the offensive coordinator in 2009. Wade was the run game coordinator from 2006 to 2008, when he was on the same offensive staff as Nebraska tight ends coach Marcus Satterfield. In 2006, UT Martin won the Ohio Valley Conference and led the league in scoring. In 2007, UT Martin led the conference in total offense and scoring offense.

EAST CAROLINA: Wade was the offensive line coach at East Carolina for two seasons in 2016 and 2017. In his final season, ECU ranked 12th nationally in passing offense and 17th in sacks allowed. In Wade's first season, the line helped the Pirates rank sixth nationally in passing and 23rd in total offense.

MIDDLE TENNESSEE: Wade spent three seasons coaching the offensive line at Middle Tennessee from 2013 to 2015. The Blue Raiders had the No. 15 passing offense in 2015 while ranking 11th nationally in completion percentage and 22nd in sacks allowed. That came one season after Wade's line helped Middle Tennessee rank 30th nationally in rushing. In Wade's first season in 2013, the Blue Raiders ranked 31st nationally in rushing. Wade's offensive linemen combined for six all-conference accolades in his three seasons at Middle Tennessee.

MARSHALL: Wade's first full-time season as an FBS offensive line coach was at Marshall in 2012. The Thundering Herd led the nation that season in passing and ranked seventh in scoring. Three of Wade's starting offensive linemen were all-conference selections.

CHATTANOOGA: Wade spent two seasons as the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Chattanooga in 2010 and 2011, while Satterfield was the Mocs' offensive coordinator. In 2010, Chattanooga ranked eighth nationally in passing and 11th in total offense. Wade coached two all-conference linemen in his two seasons at Chattanooga.

Wade also began his coaching career at Chattanooga in 2002.

MIDWESTERN STATE: Wade spent the 2005 season as the offensive line coach at Midwestern State, an NCAA Division II school in Texas.

TENNESSEE: Wade was a graduate assistant working with the offensive line at Tennessee in 2004, when the Vols went 10-3, played in the SEC Championship and won the Cotton Bowl.

MARS HILL: In 2003, Wade was the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator for Mars Hill University, a Division II school in North Carolina.

PLAYING CAREER (CHATTANOOGA)

Wade was an offensive lineman at Chattanooga from 1999 to 2001, where he served as a team captain.

PERSONAL

Wade earned his degree in business management from Chattanooga in 2022. He and his wife, Amy, have one daughter, Emma Kate, and one son, Jackson.

Addison Williams is in his second season as Nebraska's secondary coach in 2026. In his 17th season of coaching, Williams has coached at four Power Four programs with experience in the Big Ten, Big 12 and SEC.

In addition to his experience at the highest level of college football, Williams also boasts experience leading a defense. He was the defensive coordinator at UCF in 2023 and 2024, and Williams also coordinated the defenses at Furman (2019) and Tusculum (2016).

Williams has also excelled as a defensive backs coach. His work as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach helped UCF allow the fewest passing yards per game among all Big 12 teams in 2023. In his first season at Nebraska in 2025, the Huskers ranked third nationally in pass defense.

NEBRASKA (2025)

Williams had an impressive debut season coaching Nebraska's secondary in 2025. The Huskers allowed only 154.1 passing yards per game to rank third nationally in pass defense. NU also ranked second nationally in touchdown passes allowed (9).

Each of Nebraska's first three opponents were limited to fewer than 70 yards passing, marking the first time since 1990 that Nebraska had held three consecutive opponents to fewer than 100 passing yards. On the season, Nebraska held five opponents to fewer than 150 passing yards and 10 opponents to fewer than 200 passing yards. Against No. 23 USC, Nebraska held the Trojans to fewer than 150 passing yards for the first time in 83 games.

Individually, three members of the secondary earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades. Ceyair Wright was a midseason All-American, while DeShon Singleton was the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week against Michigan State, when he became the first Husker in two seasons to have multiple interceptions in a game. First-year FCS transfer Andrew Marshall shined under Williams' coaching, as Marshall was one of the top cornerbacks in the Big Ten. Williams also showed the ability to develop young players, as redshirt freshmen Donovan Jones (10) and Rex Guthrie (8) combined for 18 starts.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

UCF: Williams spent four seasons at UCF from 2021 to 2024. He was the defensive backs coach in 2021 and 2022 and retained that role while being promoted to defensive coordinator for the 2023 and 2024 seasons.

In 2024, UCF ranked in the top 30 nationally in first downs allowed and rushing defense. In 2023, Williams guided a Knight defense that led the Big 12 Conference in fewest passing yards allowed per game (196.7). UCF also ranked third in the league in team pass efficiency defense at 120.32. The Knights permitted only 12 opponent touchdown passes, which ranked seventh nationally and were the fewest by a UCF team since 2001.

Prior to the 2022 season, Williams added the title of assistant head coach with the Knights. That season, he helped a young secondary rank third in the American Athletic Conference in team pass efficiency defense as UCF played in the AAC Championship Game. Cornerback Davonte Brown was an honorable-mention All-American.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has coached in the Big Ten, Big 12 and SEC
- Nebraska ranked 3rd nationally in pass defense in 2025
- Coordinated a 2023 UCF defense that led the Big 12 in pass defense
- UCF was 7th nationally in fewest touchdown passes allowed in 2023
- UCF ranked 7th nationally in pass efficiency defense in 2021
- Helped Coastal Carolina to its best season as an FBS program in 2020
- Coastal Carolina ranked 3rd nationally in interceptions
- The Chanticleers also ranked 16th in pass efficiency defense
- South Carolina went 22-4 in his two seasons as a graduate assistant
- Coached two All-Americans as Tusculum's defensive coordinator

Upon his arrival at UCF, Williams made an immediate impact with the Knights' pass defense. Williams inherited a unit that ranked 104th nationally in pass efficiency defense in 2020, and he turned his group into a top-10 unit in his first season as UCF ranked seventh nationally in pass efficiency defense in 2021. The Knights also improved 86 spots nationally in passing yards allowed, moving to 35th in 2021, allowing 89.1 yards fewer yards per game than in 2020.

COASTAL CAROLINA: Williams spent the 2020 season as the safeties coach at Coastal Carolina, helping the Chanticleers to one of the best seasons in school history. Coastal Carolina finished with an 11-1 record and a final ranking of 14th in both the AP and Coaches polls. The Chanticleers ranked third nationally with 16 interceptions and 16th in team pass efficiency defense.

AUBURN: Williams served as an analyst and assistant to the head coach at Auburn in 2019. That season was his first on a Gus Malzahn staff, and he would later re-join Malzahn at UCF for four seasons.

FURMAN: Williams spent three seasons on the staff at FCS Furman. He coached the cornerbacks in 2017 and 2018 and was promoted to defensive coordinator for the 2019 season and led the Paladins defense that spring before joining the Auburn staff. The play of Williams' cornerbacks helped Furman win a share of the 2018 Southern Conference title.

TUSCULUM: Williams spent four seasons at Tusculum, a Division II program in Greeneville, Tenn. He coached the defensive backs for three seasons from 2013 to 2015 and served as Tusculum's defensive coordinator in 2016. Two Pioneer defenders earned All-America honors in Williams' lone season as defensive coordinator.

SOUTH CAROLINA: Williams began his coaching career at South Carolina, his alma mater. He served as a student assistant in 2010 and as a defensive graduate assistant in 2011 and 2012. The Gamecocks finished with a 22-4 record in his two seasons as a graduate assistant.

PLAYING CAREER (SOUTH CAROLINA)

Williams played three seasons as a cornerback at South Carolina for Coach Steve Spurrier from 2007 to 2009, playing in 26 games.

PERSONAL

Williams earned his degree in sports and entertainment management from South Carolina in 2010. He and his wife Chelsea have two children, Ace and Lou.

Tyler Yelk is in his first season as Nebraska's safeties coach in 2026. Yelk boasts nearly two decades of coaching experience, including three years as a collegiate defensive coordinator and three years in the National Football League.

Yelk brings a winning pedigree to the Husker staff. He won a Division II national championship as a player and an assistant coach and was on the Philadelphia Eagles staff that won Super Bowl LIX and tied the NFL record for season wins. Yelk also coached at three different FCS programs and each program made at least one playoff appearance during his tenure. On the FBS level, Yelk helped Northern Illinois to a conference title in 2018.

Yelk has helped orchestrate top pass defenses throughout his coaching career. He has been a part of a top-25 pass defense at four of his six collegiate coaching stops. In the professional ranks, Yelk was a defensive assistant in 2025 when the Eagles allowed the fewest touchdown passes in the NFL.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES: Yelk spent three seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles before joining the NU staff. He was a defensive assistant in 2025 after previously serving as head coach quality control in 2024 and assistant to the head coach in 2023. Yelk helped the Eagles win Super Bowl LIX.

In 2025, Yelk helped the Eagles rank fifth in the NFL in scoring defense. Philadelphia allowed only 14 touchdown passes, the fewest of any team in the NFL in 2025 and the fewest by any NFL team in four years. In 2024, Yelk and the Eagles tied an NFL record with 18 wins (regular season and playoffs) in a season that culminated with a win over Kansas City in Super Bowl LIX. As the assistant to the head coach in 2023, Yelk helped Philadelphia to an 11-6 record and a playoff appearance.

IDAHO: Yelk coached the safeties at Idaho in 2022 when Nebraska defensive coordinator Rob Aurich was the Vandals' defensive coordinator. Idaho boasted one of the top pass defenses in the FCS in Yelk's lone season coaching the safeties.

The Vandals ranked fifth in the FCS in interceptions (16) in 2022. Idaho was also in the top 25 in pass defense (19th) and team pass efficiency defense (23rd). Individually, safety Tommy McCormick was an All-Big Sky selection who went on to sign an NFL contract.

TEMPLE: Yelk spent three seasons at Temple from 2019 to 2021. He coached the safeties in his final two seasons after tutoring the nickels in his first season. Temple had a top-25 pass defense in two of his three seasons on staff.

Temple ranked fifth nationally in passing defense in 2021, allowing fewer than 180 yards per game. The Owls played only seven games during the 2020 Covid season, but in 2019 Yelk helped Temple rank seventh nationally in red zone defense, 12th in defensive touchdowns and 21st in pass efficiency defense.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS: Yelk was the safeties coach at Northern Illinois in 2018, when NIU won the Mid-American Conference championship. The Huskies ranked second in the MAC in total defense in Yelk's one season on staff. Individually, Mykelti Williams was an all-conference selection.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has helped produce a top-25 pass defense with four different teams
- Won a Division II national championship as a player and coach
- Won a Super Bowl titles as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles staff
- Also coached in the FCS playoffs at three different schools
- Philadelphia allowed the fewest touchdown passes in the NFL in 2025
- Idaho was 5th in the FCS in interceptions & 19th in pass defense in 2022
- Temple had a top-25 pass defense in 2 of his 3 seasons on staff
- Helped Northern Illinois to the 2018 MAC title
- South Dakota ranked 20th in the FCS in interceptions in 2017
- Western Illinois ranked 7th in the FCS in interceptions in 2015

SOUTH DAKOTA: Yelk was the co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach at South Dakota in 2016 and 2017. In 2017, the Coyotes ranked 19th in the FCS in defensive touchdowns and 20th in interceptions as South Dakota advanced to the second round of the FCS playoffs. Individually, five Coyote defenders earned all-conference accolades in Yelk's two seasons.

WESTERN ILLINOIS: Yelk was on the Western Illinois defensive staff for three seasons from 2013 to 2015. He served as the Leathernecks' co-defensive coordinator in 2015 after coaching defensive backs and special teams in 2013 and 2014. Western Illinois totaled 36 interceptions in his three seasons on staff.

In 2015, Western Illinois ranked seventh in the FCS in interceptions and 33rd in pass efficiency defense. That season, Western Illinois made the FCS playoffs for the first time in five seasons. As the Leathernecks' special teams coach in 2014, Yelk led a unit that ranked 10th in the FCS in blocked punts and 11th in blocked kicks. In his first season, Yelk's defensive backs helped Western Illinois rank third in the FCS in pass defense, seventh in total defense, 14th in pass efficiency defense and first down defense and 15th in interceptions. On special teams, the Leathernecks were 16th in the FCS in punt returns

MINNESOTA-DULUTH: Yelk spent four years on the staff at his alma mater, the University of Minnesota Duluth, from 2009 to 2012. He coached the defensive backs each of his four seasons on the staff and was also the Bulldogs' special teams coordinator in 2012.

UMD had tremendous success during Yelk's tenure. The Bulldogs totaled 47 wins in his four seasons on staff with four conference championships and four Division II playoff appearances, including the 2010 national championship.

In 2012 with Yelk leading the special teams, UMD ranked second in Division II in kickoff returns. As the defensive backs coach, Yelk's unit helped the Bulldogs rank seventh in total defense in 2011, 15th in scoring defense and 18th in pass defense. In 2010, UMD was No. 1 in scoring defense, 12th in total defense and 21st in pass efficiency defense. Minnesota-Duluth was second in scoring defense, fifth in total defense and 29th in pass efficiency defense in Yelk's first season on staff in 2009.

PLAYING CAREER (MINNESOTA-DULUTH)

Yelk was a Division II national champion and an All-America defensive back at the University of Minnesota Duluth from 2005 to 2008. He ended his career as Minnesota-Duluth's all-time leading tackler with 323 stops. Yelk was UMD's defensive MVP in 2008, when he was named an All-American after the Bulldogs went 15-0 and won the Division II national championship.

PERSONAL

Yelk earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Minnesota-Duluth in 2008 and his master's degree in education from UMD in 2012. He and his wife, Elyce, have two daughters, Leighton and Penelope.

RON BROWN

[FULLBACKS/RETURNERS]

Ron Brown has a long history with Nebraska football and serves as the fullbacks and returners coach for the third straight year in 2026. Brown held the title of Nebraska's director of player support and outreach in 2023 and 2024. Previously, Brown spent the 2021 and 2022 seasons as a senior offensive analyst after working as the Huskers' director of player development in 2018, 2019 and 2020.

A veteran college coach, Brown has a long association with Husker football, serving as an assistant coach for 24 seasons (1987-2003 and again from 2008-14).

He coached for four seasons at his alma mater, Brown University, before his 24 seasons at Nebraska. Brown was the associate head coach at Liberty for three seasons from 2014 to 2017, where he served under former Husker player and assistant coach Turner Gill.

Brown was a part of three national championships at Nebraska, and he coached more than 40 academic all-conference players and nearly 40 players that went on to professional careers.

In 2025, Brown saw both of his return specialists earn All-Big Ten accolades. Kickoff returner Kenneth Williams was a third-team All-Big Ten selection while punt returner Jacory Barney Jr. was an honorable-mention All-Big ten pick.

Brown coached the Nebraska tight ends (2008-10) and running backs (2011-14) during his most recent stint with the Huskers. During that time, he tutored future NFL running backs Rex Burkhead and Ameer Abdullah, who rank second and sixth, respectively, on NU's all-time rushing list.

Burkhead earned first-team Academic All-America honors in both 2011 and 2012, while Abdullah was a Doak Walker Award finalist as a senior in 2014. Abdullah left Nebraska as the school's No. 2 all-time rusher and all-time leader in all-purpose yards.

During his time as an assistant from 1987 to 2003, Brown coached the Nebraska wide receivers and tight ends. Brown's players had a reputation for their tenacity and downfield blocking, helping Nebraska to nine NCAA rushing crowns in 17 seasons.

Brown spent four years from 2004 to 2007 as the Nebraska State Director of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. A native of New York, Brown earned his bachelor's degree from Brown in 1979, and a master's degree from Columbia in 1982.

Ron is married to Molvina Carter.

AARON COELING

[ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE]

Aaron Coeling is in his fifth season with the Husker football staff in 2026. He serves Nebraska as the assistant offensive line coach. Coeling previously worked as an analyst and as a graduate assistant.

Coeling's work with the Husker offense set school records for fewest turnovers in a season, team season completion percentage and individual season completion percentage in 2025. The offensive line also played a key role in Emmett Johnson leading the nation in scrimmage yards per game en route to becoming the Big Ten Running Back of the Year and a first-team All-American.

In 2024, the line helped a pair of first-year players set freshman records for passing yards, completion percentage and receptions. In 2023, Coeling helped Nebraska rank second in the Big Ten in rushing. In his first season as a Husker in 2022, Coeling worked with an offensive line that nearly paved the way for a 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver, which has happened only once in the history of Nebraska football.

Trey Palmer set a Nebraska single-season receiving record with 1,043 yards in 2022, while Anthony Grant had five 100-yard rushing performances and ran for 915 yards, the highest total by a Husker in four seasons. Behind the play of the line, Nebraska had two games in 2022 with a 300-yard passer, a 100-yard rusher and a 100-yard receiver. Entering the season, Nebraska had accomplished that feat only seven times in its first 132 seasons.

Coeling came to Nebraska after spending three seasons at Charleston Southern from 2019 to 2021. He coached the offensive line and was the Buccaneers' assistant head coach in 2020 and 2021. During his time at Charleston Southern he coached five all-conference offensive linemen.

Coeling was a graduate assistant at Notre Dame in 2017 and 2018. The Fighting Irish went 22-4 in his two seasons. In 2018, he helped Notre Dame to a 12-0 regular season and a berth in the College Football Playoffs. In 2017, Notre Dame won the Joe Moore Award as the best offensive line in the country. Notre Dame had 10 NFL draft picks in his two seasons.

Coeling served as a graduate assistant at Miami (Ohio) in 2015 and 2016. The 2016 season was a historic one that saw Miami start the season 0-6 only to turn around and finish 6-6 and earn an invitation to the St. Petersburg Bowl. In 2016, Collin Buchanan was invited to the NFL Combine and later signed a free agent contract with New Orleans.

Coeling earned his bachelor's degree in business marketing and sport management from Wittenberg University in 2014. He was a four-year starter on the offensive line for the Tigers from 2011 to 2014. A three-time all-conference selection and 2013 third-team All-American, Coeling helped Wittenberg to a 37-8 record and four conference championships in his career.

Aaron and his wife Melissa Coeling have been married since July of 2020.

ADAM DiMICHELE

[ASSISTANT SECONDARY]

Adam DiMichele is in his fourth season on the Nebraska staff in 2026. He serves as the assistant secondary coach. DiMichele joined Nebraska after spending the previous 10 seasons at Temple.

In 2025, DiMichele worked with a Husker secondary that ranked third nationally in pass defense. NU also ranked second nationally in touchdown passes allowed (9). Nebraska held five opponents to fewer than 150 passing yards and 10 opponents to fewer than 200 passing yards in 2025. Against No. 23 USC, Nebraska held the Trojans to fewer than 150 passing yards for the first time in 83 games.

DiMichele began his coaching career under Matt Rhule in 2013, serving on Rhule's staff for four seasons. In a testament to his ability, DiMichele was then retained by three different Temple head coaches, spending 10 seasons at his alma mater from 2013 to 2022.

DiMichele's first coaching job was as Temple's offensive graduate assistant as a part of Rhule's first staff in 2013. DiMichele was elevated to an assistant coaching position in 2014, when he coached the wide receivers. He then spent his final two seasons on Rhule's staff as the Owls' director of player development.

During his four seasons on Rhule's staff, Temple recorded two of the three 10-win seasons in program history, played in consecutive bowl games for the first time and won the Owls' second conference title and first in nearly 40 years.

DiMichele remained at Temple after Rhule left for Baylor, serving as the Owls' offensive quality control coach and recruiting assistant in 2017. In 2018, he was Temple's quarterbacks and inside receivers coach while also coordinating the recruiting efforts for the offense. DiMichele served as an offensive analyst in 2019 and 2020, and he was the Owls' director of player personnel in 2021 and 2022.

A Pennsylvania native, DiMichele entered the coaching profession after a successful playing career as a quarterback. He starred at Temple from 2006 to 2008, serving as team captain in 2007 and 2008 while earning team MVP honors in both of those seasons. DiMichele ended his career ranked fourth in Temple history with 5,024 career passing yards. He accounted for 45 total touchdowns during his career, including a school-record six touchdown passes in a game. DiMichele also ranked in the top five in Owl history for career 200-yard passing games (10) and single-season 300-yard passing games (4 in 2008).

DiMichele had professional stints in the National Football League and the Canadian Football League. He spent time with the Philadelphia Eagles, the Calgary Stampeders and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers in 2009 before moving on to arena football. DiMichele was also selected in the 38th round of the 2005 Major League Baseball Draft by the Toronto Blue Jays.

He was a three-sport (football, basketball and baseball) standout for Sto-Rox High School in Pennsylvania. At Sto-Rox, DiMichele finished his career as the all-time leading passer in the history of the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League (WPIAL), breaking the mark of previous record holders Joe Montana, Dan Marino and Joe Namath, all of whom are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. DiMichele was inducted into the WPIAL Hall of Fame in 2011.

DiMichele received his degree in sport and recreation management from Temple in 2009. He and his wife Kathy have two sons, Grayson, and Avery.

DAVE TOLLEFSON

[DEFENSIVE ANALYST]

Dave Tollefson is in his first season as a Nebraska defensive analyst in 2026. Tollefson first joined the Huskers following the 2025 regular season, as he worked with the NU defensive line for the Las Vegas Bowl.

Tollefson was a standout defensive end for Northwest Missouri State in 2004 and 2005. He was the conference defensive player of the year as a senior in 2005, when he set the Bearcats' season record with 12.5 sacks. Tollefson finished his career with 21.0 sacks, ending his career with the second-highest sack total in Northwest Missouri State history.

Tollefson was selected in the seventh round of the 2006 NFL Draft, becoming just the fourth Northwest Missouri State player to be drafted. He went on to spend six seasons in the NFL, playing in 78 games. He totaled 90 tackles and 10.5 sacks in his NFL career. In 2023, Tollefson was inducted into the Northwest Missouri State M-Club Hall of Fame.

ANDREW VERBOYS

[ASSISTANT WIDE RECEIVERS]

Andrew Verboys is in his second season on the Nebraska coaching staff in 2026. Verboys works with the Husker wide receivers after spending three seasons at Kentucky.

In his first season on staff in 2025, Nebraska's wide receivers combined for 17 touchdown catches after NU wideouts had just 15 touchdown receptions in the 2023 and 2024 seasons combined. The wide receivers also helped Nebraska set a season record for completion percentage. Nebraska also had three wideout with five or more touchdown receptions for the first time in program history.

Verboys served as a graduate assistant at Kentucky from 2022 to 2024. He worked with the Wildcat wide receivers, and Dane Key thrived under his tutelage. Key had more than 1,300 receiving yards over the 2023 and 2024 seasons combined. In 2023, Key was one of three Kentucky receivers who had more than 500 receiving yards. Barion Brown also had more than 1,500 receiving yards in the three seasons he was coached by Verboys.

Prior to Kentucky, Verboys spent the 2021 season at Virginia Tech. He coached the wide receivers as a volunteer assistant/offensive quality control coach in the spring before moving into a graduate assistant role and coaching the cornerbacks and safeties during the season.

Verboys was a high school coach before moving into the college ranks. He was an assistant coach/pass game coordinator at Scarsdale High School in New York under his father, Andy.

Verboys played collegiately at Delaware (2016-18) and Massachusetts (2014-16). Verboys played in 24 games in three seasons with Delaware after playing in one contest in two years at Massachusetts.

COREY CAMPBELL

[HEAD STRENGTH COACH]

Corey Campbell is in his fourth season as Nebraska's head football strength and conditioning coach in 2026. Campbell owns more than a decade of experience as a strength and conditioning coach, including time in the National Football League and in the Big Ten and Big 12 Conferences.

Campbell's work in Lincoln has helped the Huskers match or improve their win total in each of his first three seasons (2023, 2024, 2025). Nebraska has won as many games (19) in Campbell's three seasons as the Huskers had in the previous five seasons combined. In 2024, Nebraska played in a bowl game for the first time since 2016, and the Huskers won a bowl game for the first time since 2015. NU then posted back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in a decade.

Campbell came to Nebraska after a stint in the NFL with the Carolina Panthers in 2021 and 2022. Under head coach Matt Rhule, Campbell served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Panthers. In 2021, Carolina ranked second in the NFL in total defense.

Campbell was also on Rhule's staff at Baylor, spending four seasons with the Bears. He served as an assistant director of athletic performance for three seasons from 2017 to 2019 before being promoted to Director of Athletic Performance in 2020. At Baylor, Campbell helped develop nearly two dozen future NFL Players. During his tenure, the Bears had four All-Americans, the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year and Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year. Baylor also had 18 All-Big 12 selections while Campbell was on staff. As a team, Baylor improved from a 1-11 record in 2017 to an 11-1 record in 2019, when the Bears appeared in their first Big 12 Championship game and played in the Sugar Bowl.

Before Baylor, Campbell spent a spring season as an assistant director of strength and conditioning at Purdue. In addition to his work with individual position groups, Campbell was responsible for designing supplementary programming aimed at adding lean mass to underdeveloped athletes and planning performance preparation and recovery/regeneration sessions. His work in the offseason helped set the stage for Purdue to post its highest win total in 10 years in 2017, and eight Boilermakers he trained went on to play in the NFL.

Campbell's first full-time job came at Cincinnati, where he was an assistant director of strength and conditioning for the 2016 season. He worked with 12 future NFL players in his lone season at Cincinnati, while also serving as the strength and conditioning coach for the golf and varsity cheerleading teams. Campbell got his professional start at Georgia College, where he was a strength and conditioning graduate assistant.

As a player, Campbell was a two-year letterwinner as a fullback and special teams standout at Georgia. During his four seasons from 2010 to 2013, Georgia finished with a 36-18 record with two trips to the SEC Championship game and four bowl appearances, including a victory over Nebraska in the 2013 Capital One Bowl and a loss to the Huskers in the 2014 Gator Bowl. Campbell was named special teams captain four times as a senior in 2013. He earned his degree in biological science from Georgia in 2013 and graduated with a master's degree in kinesiology from Georgia College in 2016.

PAT STEWART

[GENERAL MANAGER]

Pat Stewart is in his second season as general manager for the Husker football program in 2026. In his role at Nebraska, Stewart leads the Huskers' roster management and player acquisition efforts, including high school and transfer portal recruiting, evaluation and retention.

Stewart joined Coach Matt Rhule's staff after spending two seasons as the director of pro personnel for the New England Patriots. Stewart has a long history in personnel and scouting in the National Football League, including working with the Carolina Panthers from 2020 to 2022, while Rhule served as head coach. The majority of Stewart's time in the NFL was spent in the Patriots organization, where he was a part of two Super Bowl Championship teams.

In his time with the Panthers, Stewart served as the Director of Player Personnel in 2020 before being elevated to Vice President of Player Personnel for the 2021 and 2022 seasons. Stewart was a national scout for the Philadelphia Eagles in 2018 and 2019.

Prior to joining the Eagles scouting staff, Stewart held multiple positions with the Patriots from 2007-17. He was originally hired by New England as a scouting assistant in 2007 and went on to serve as both an area scout (2009, 2013-17) and pro scout (2010-12).

Before entering the NFL, Stewart worked as an assistant director of football operations at Temple University (2006) under head coach Al Golden and was a graduate assistant coach at Western Carolina in 2005.

From 2000 to 2004, he worked for Jim Tressel at Ohio State as a student manager while earning his bachelor's degree in political science, which he received in 2005.

DR. SUSAN ELZA

[ASST. AD OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION]

Dr. Susan Elza is in her fourth season at Nebraska in 2026. She is in her second season as the assistant athletic director for football administration after having the title of football chief of staff in her first two seasons. A longtime respected administrator, Elza leads and coordinates all administrative efforts within the Husker program.

Elza came to Nebraska after more than seven years as the director of athletics for the University Interscholastic League (UIL), the governing body of Texas high school extracurricular activities. She was the top administrator for the athletics division of the UIL, which is the largest inter-school organization of its kind in the world. In her role, Elza oversaw the UIL athletic department and administered athletic activities for member schools.

Previously, Elza served as the executive director of athletics at Northwest Independent School District in Fort Worth. Prior to that, she was an assistant athletic director at Allen Independent School District in Allen, Texas. Elza was also a head softball coach at Garland and Allen.

Elza earned her bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science from Southwest Texas State, her master's degree in education administration from Texas A&M Commerce and her doctoral degree in educational leadership from Lamar. She was inducted into the Texas High School Athletic Director Hall of Honor in 2023.

JARRETT WISHON

[CHIEF OF STAFF]

Jarrett Wishon is in his fourth season at Nebraska in 2026. He is in his second year as the Huskers' chief of staff after serving as assistant to the head coach in his first two years. Wishon is in his fourth season working under Matt Rhule, as Wishon was the assistant to the head coach on Rhule's Carolina Panthers staff in 2022.

Wishon returned to football after a long career in law enforcement. He was a special agent and criminal investigator with the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives from 2014 until joining the Panthers in March of 2022. Prior to his work with the ATF, Wishon was a police detective for the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department for nine years from 2005 to 2014.

Wishon's first coaching role was as a student assistant working with the offense at Western Carolina in 2005. He played football for Western Carolina, appearing in 30 games from 2002 to 2004. Wishon earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice/law enforcement administration from Western Carolina in 2005.

HAVEN FIELDS

[DEPUTY AD/CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER]

Haven Fields is in his second year as Nebraska's deputy athletic director/chief operating officer in 2025. Fields serves as the day-to-day football administrator, assisting Head Coach Matt Rhule and his football staff.

In addition to his role with the football program, Fields oversees the Huskers Athletic Fund team and assists Director of Athletics Troy Dannen in managing the day-to-day operations of the athletic department.

Fields came to Lincoln after spending time on Dannen's staff at Washington. With the Huskies, Fields led several external units including marketing and fan engagement, strategic communications, creative and digital services and multimedia, while serving as the liaison for Learfield/Husky Sports Properties. Fields also played a role in assisting with the Huskies' transition to the Big Ten with oversight of the broadcast operations as it prepared for its partnership with the Big Ten Network.

Fields was the football sport administrator at Washington, the 2024 College Football Playoff runner-up and 2023 Pac-12 Champions. During his time at UW, Fields assisted in the hiring of new Head Football Coach Jedd Fisch and Head Men's Basketball Coach Danny Sprinkle.

Before his appointment at Washington, Fields was the deputy athletics director at Ball State as the No. 2 administrator in the department. He assisted in supervising the Cardinals' 19 teams and 450-plus student-athletes. Fields oversaw several external areas (athletics communications, marketing & fan engagement, development, ticketing sales & operations) and was the liaison to Learfield-IMG/Ball State Sports Properties.

Several of the Ball State teams Fields worked with experienced record success from a revenue generation standpoint. Specifically, he worked as the sport administrator for the football and basketball programs. He administered the football program's first bowl win in school history in 2020, beating two top-25 opponents in that season. Ball State finished the year ranked in the AP poll and made back-to-back bowl appearances for only the third time in the school's history.

Fields led Ball State's COVID-19 plan for return to campus, testing protocols that successfully allowed all programs to compete and finish their seasons. During his time at Ball State, he assisted in raising private support of more than $15 million and oversaw the athletic department's most notable capital project to date - The Scheumann Family Indoor Practice Facility, which was fully funded through private support.

Prior to his time at Ball State, Fields worked at the University of Illinois as the associate athletic director of development. In his six years with the Illini, Fields assisted with the university's $2.25 billion "With Illinois" campaign, $300 million of which was earmarked for athletics. The university campaign exceeded $2.7 billion, and the athletics portion raised $321 million.

Before his stint at Illinois, Fields worked at the University of South Alabama for over five years, where he assisted in the facilitation of the overall football operation for a start-up, Division I program, and transition to Football Bowl Subdivision. Fields began his time in collegiate athletics at Auburn, working for four years at his alma mater.

Fields played collegiate football for Auburn, earning the Zeke Smith Award (Auburn's Defensive Player of the Year). He was an honorable mention All-SEC pick as a linebacker and earned a spot on the 1999 AFCA "Good Works" Team. After college, Fields played two seasons of professional football in the Canadian Football League for the Hamilton Tigercats and British Columbia Lions.

Fields earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Auburn in 2001 and later earned a master's in higher education administration/sports management. He and his wife, Dr. Mya, who is an assistant dean for Purdue University's School of Multidisciplinary and Professional Studies, have two sons, Haven Jr. and Hendrix.

He also saw action on special teams at Iowa. In the Pinstripe Bowl win over Boston College, Benning had a career-high three tackles.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (OMAHA WESTSIDE HS)

Benning joined the Nebraska program from Omaha Westside High School, where he helped the Warriors to one of the most dominant seasons in Nebraska high school history. Benning was just the sixth player in state history to earn All-Nebraska honors for three straight years from the Omaha World-Herald.

Benning was a key for Coach Paul Limongi's team on offense, defense and special teams, helping Westside to a 13-0 record and its second straight Class A state title as a senior. The Warriors outscored the opposition 643-46 on the season and allowed only six points in four playoff games. Benning recorded 43 tackles, six interceptions, 19 passes defended and seven tackles for loss as a senior. On offense, he caught 45 passes for 602 yards and seven touchdowns, and accumulated more than 500 return yards, including 324 punt return yards. He was an honorary captain of both the World-Herald's All-Nebraska team and the Lincoln Journal Star Super-State squad.

Benning's junior season was limited to four games because of injury, but he returned to help Westside win the Class A state title game by nabbing two interceptions in the championship game. He totaled 16 receptions, 154 punt return yards and 10 passes defended on the season. Benning first earned All-Nebraska honors as a sophomore in helping Westside to a 12-1 record and a state runner-up finish. He made 68 tackles with four TFLs and four interceptions. Offensively, he averaged nearly 16 yards on 11 catches and had a combined 476 return yards.

Benning was a key part of the Warriors' successful basketball program as well. A floor leader, he helped Westside to state semifinal appearances as a sophomore, junior and senior.

Benning was ranked among the top 50 safeties in the country by 247Sports and ESPN.

2025 (SOPHOMORE)

Gunnar Gottula has started the first seven games in 2025 before suffering a season-ending injury. He made four starts at left tackle and three starts at right tackle. His run blocking helped Emmett Johnson be named a first-team All-American and the Big Ten Running Back of the Year. Against Akron, Gottula helped Nebraska total 728 yards, the eighth-highest total in program history. After starting the first four games at left tackle, Gottula made his first career start at right tackle against Michigan State, and he was named the right tackle on the PFF National Team of the Week.

2024 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

After battling an early injury, Gottula played in 11 games in 2024 with the first nine starts of his career, all at left tackle. He made his season debut against Northern Iowa after missing the first two games. Gottula played the majority of the game at left tackle against Illinois following an injury to starting left tackle Turner Corcoran. He started the next game at left tackle and started the final nine games at the position. His pass protection helped quarterback Dylan Raiola set Nebraska's freshman passing record.

2023 (REDSHIRT)

Gottula earned a spot on Nebraska's depth chart at left tackle as a true freshman and played in four games while using his redshirt season.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LINCOLN SOUTHEAST HS)

Gottula was a standout offensive lineman for Lincoln Southeast High School, playing for his father, Ryan. 2025 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Rex Guthrie played in all 13 games in 2025 with eight starts. He recorded 63 tackles and added 2.0 tackles for loss and one pass breakup. Guthrie became only the third Husker freshmen to record 60 tackles in a season since freshmen regained eligibility in 1972, and his 63 tackles were the second-most by a Husker freshman since 1972. Guthrie was a key member of a secondary that ranked third nationally in pass defense.

Guthrie made his Husker debut against Cincinnati and had three tackles. He had three more tackles against Akron with his first career TFL and first career pass breakup. Guthrie led Nebraska with six tackles against Houston Christian with a half tackle for loss. His play helped the Husker secondary limit each of the first three opponents to fewer than 100 passing yards, a first for the program since 1990.

Guthrie made his first career start against Michigan State and recorded five tackles. He had four solo tackles at Maryland. Guthrie recorded five tackles at Minnesota. He had a career-high eight tackles against Northwestern. Guthrie matched that total with eight more tackles against No. 23 USC, and he helped the Huskers limit USC to fewer than 150 passing yards for the first time in 83 games.

Guthrie had six tackles in Nebraska's win at UCLA. At Penn State, Guthrie totaled four tackles, including a half tackle for loss. Guthrie totaled three solo tackles against Iowa. He recorded three tackles in the Las Vegas Bowl against No. 15 Utah.

2024 (REDSHIRT)

Guthrie redshirted and did not play in a game in 2024.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (HERITAGE HS)

Guthrie was one of the top prospects in Colorado. He starred for Heritage High School in Littleton, playing for Coach Tyler Knoblock.

Guthrie was selected a team captain for the 2023 season but had his senior campaign cut short due to injury. He made 15 tackles in two games and earned academic all-state recognition as Heritage posted a 7-5 record and made the Class 4A quarterfinals.

As a junior, Guthrie helped Heritage to a state quarterfinal appearance. He made 115 tackles, including 6.5 tackles for loss and added three interceptions. On special teams, he averaged 28.0 yards per kickoff return. Guthrie led his conference in tackles and was the league's special teams player of the year while earning All-Colorado honors. He was also a first-team Academic All-State honoree.

Guthrie was a second-team all-conference selection as a sophomore when he had 64 tackles and two interceptions and handled kickoff return duties.

Guthrie was a consensus top 10 player in the state of Colorado, including being tabbed as the No. 4 in the state by 247 Sports.

2025 (SOPHOMORE)

Sua Lefotu played in four games in 2025, finishing with three tackes. He recorded a split sack against Akron. Lefotu added one tackle against Houston Christian. Lefotu played extensively in the Las Vegas Bowl against No. 15 Utah and had one tackle.

2024 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Lefotu was slowed early in the season with an injury but returned to play in two games in 2024. Lefotu made his season debut against Rutgers, and he had his first tackle of the season at Indiana.

2023 (REDSHIRT)

Lefotu played in three games while using his redshirt season in 2023. He made his debut by playing on the defensive line at Colorado, recovering a fumble that set up a Nebraska touchdown drive. He recorded his first two career tackles against No. 2 Michigan. Lefotu also played on the defensive line against Iowa.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ST. JOHN BOSCO HS)

Lefotu was a standout defensive lineman for California powerhouse St. John Bosco High School. He helped the Braves to a high school national championship in 2022.

Lefotu recorded 24 tackles with 3.0 tackles for loss and one forced fumble as a senior, according to MaxPreps. His play helped St. John Bosco to a 13-1 record and a California open division state title. The Braves were crowned national champions as the No. 1 high school team in the country by High School Football America. St. John Bosco allowed fewer than 10 points per game, posting four shutouts on the season. Lefotu missed his sophomore season due to injury, and the injury also limited his impact as a junior.

Lefotu was ranked among the nation's top 100 defensive linemen by ESPN. He had an impressive list of offers and chose Nebraska over his other finalists, Arizona State and Weber State.

CLAUDE MPOUMA

#71

[FRESHMAN » OFFENSIVE LINE]

6-8 | 260 | CHICAGO, ILL.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MOUNT CARMEL HS)

Claude Mpouma exploded onto the scene as one of the most promising offensive linemen in the country. Although he did not move to America until he was a teenager and played only two high school seasons, Mpouma impressed enough to earn an invitation to play in the Navy All-American Bowl.

As a senior, Mpouma started on the offensive line and has helped Mount Carmel to a berth in the Class 8A state championship game. Mount Carmel is averaging 38.5 points per game and is 13-0 heading into the state final. Mpouma was the starting left tackle at Wendell Phillips Academy in Chicago as a junior, his first season playing organized football. Mpouma was also a state champion in basketball during his high school career.

A consensus four-star recruit, Mpouma is ranked as one of the nation's top 250 prospects by all three major recruiting services. 247Sports ranks Mpouma as the No. 127 player in the class and the 15th-best offensive tackle.

He added 52 tackles, four tackles for loss and an interception on defense. Wacker earned first-team Class C-2 honors as a linebacker by both the Lincoln Journal Star and the Omaha World-Herald.

As a junior, Wacker helped Yutan to a state playoff appearance with six touchdowns, including three rushing scores and three receiving touchdowns. He was an honorable-mention all-state choice for his performance. Wacker totaled 68 tackles as a sophomore and was part of a state runner-up team as a freshman.

Wacker also excelled in track and wrestling at Yutan. As a senior, he won the Class C discus title with a throw of 167-4 and competed in the 4x100m relay. As a junior, Wacker was the Class C state runner-up in wrestling at 182 pounds, and he placed fifth in the discus at the state meet and was part of a 4x100 relay that finished sixth.

REX WATERMAN

#76

[FRESHMAN » OFFENSIVE LINE]

6-5 | 295 | CHANDLER, ARIZ.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (HAMILTON HS)

Rex Waterman was a standout offensive lineman for powerhouse Hamilton High School in Arizona. He helped Hamilton boast one of Arizona's most explosive and balanced offenses.

Waterman helped Hamilton to an 11-1 record and a trip to the state semifinals as a senior. He was a key lineman for a Huskies, who averaged more than 300 yards passing and 200 yards rushing per game, according to MaxPreps. Hamilton went 10-2 in Waterman's junior season, when the Huskies averaged 425 yards of offense per game. Hamilton averaged 445 yards of offense per game in Waterman's sophomore season.

A three-star recruit, Waterman is ranked as one of the top 70 inside offensive linemen in the country. ESPN tabs Waterman as the nation's No. 63 inside offensive linemen.

ARCHIE WILSON

#83

[SOPHOMORE » PUNTER]

6-2 | 215 | FRANKSTON SOUTH, AUSTRALIA

[HONORS & AWARDS]

» Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2025)

2025 (FRESHMAN)

Archie Wilson was Nebraska's starting punter as a true freshman in 2025 despite never playing in a football game prior to the season. He averaged 39.4 yards on 37 punts, with 12 punts downed inside the 20-yard line. Only six of Wilson's 37 punts were returned, as Nebraska ranked ninth nationally in fewest punt return yards allowed (23) and 15th in opponent punt return average (3.8 yards per return).

Wilson was highly effective in his debut, placing three of his four punts inside the Cincinnati 15-yard line, with a pair of punts downed inside the 10-yard line. Wilson did not play against Akron as the Huskers did not punt in that game. He did see action against Houston Christian but did not punt as Nebraska went a second straight game without punting. Wilson punted four times against No. 21 Michigan and averaged 49.2 yards per punt. Two of his punts went for 50 yards or longer - including a career-long 56-yard punt - while only one of his punts was returned, a negative return of -1 yard. Wilson placed two of his four punts against Michigan State inside the 20-yard line, with one punt inside the 10-yard line. Wilson punted only once at Maryland. He punted five times at Minnesota, averaging 44.6 yards per punt with a 53-yard punt and another punt downed inside the Gopher 5-yard line.

Wilson averaged 55.5 yards on two punts against Northwestern, with punts of 53 and 58 yards, including one punt inside the 20-yard line. He placed two of his four punts against USC inside the 20-yard line. Wilson punted twice at UCLA with each punt down inside the Bruin 10-yard line. He had two punts at Penn State, including a 46-yarder from his own end zone and a punt that was downed at the PSU 10-yard line. Wilson punted four times against Iowa and did not allow a return against the nation's top punt returner. In the Las Vegas Bowl against No. 15 Utah, Wilson averaged 42.6 yards on his five punts and Utah managed only one punt return yard in two attempts.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (HAILEYBURY PREP/PROKICK AUSTRALIA)

Wilson joined Nebraska in the summer of 2025 from Australia. He played Australian Rules football for Haileybury College as a key defender. Wilson was a product of Prokick Australia, which has produced eight Ray Guy Award winners and had 29 punters awarded NFL or CFL contracts.

NEBRASKA SERIES RECORDS VS. 2026 OPPONENTS

OHIO SERIES

First Meeting

Series Notes: This is the first meeting between the two schools. This will mark the first of two games against the Mid-American Conference to open the 2026 season. It marks the first time Nebraska has faced consecutive non-conference opponents from the same conference since opening the 2016 season with two Mountain West foes. Hall of Fame Head Coach Frank Solich spent six seasons at Nebraska before coaching for 16 seasons at Ohio. He won a total of 173 games in his college coaching career.

BOWLING GREEN SERIES

Series Notes: Six of the nine meetings since Nebraska joined the Big Ten have been decided by five or fewer points, including five of the past six matchups.The four meetings in East Lansing since Nebraska joined the Big Ten have all been decided by five or fewer points. Nebraska defeated Michigan State, 9-6, in Lincoln in 2018, winning without a touchdown for the first time since a 3-0 win over Kansas State in 1937. Nebraska's 39-38 win over No. 6 MSU in 2015 marked just the third time in school history an unranked Nebraska team defeated a top-10 opponent. It was also the highest-ranked team NU had defeated in 14 seasons. MSU posted its first two wins in the series in 2013 and 2014. Nebraska's rally from a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit marked one of four second-half double-digit comebacks in 2012. The Spartans were held to 14 or fewer points in each of the first six meetings, including three points in consecutive meetings in 2003 and 2011. NU's win over No. 9 Michigan State in 2011 marked the second straight year the Huskers defeated a top-10 team in Lincoln. Second-ranked Nebraska posted a 50-10 victory at Michigan State in 1995, in the Huskers' first trip to East Lansing.

Series Notes: Nebraska and Indiana meet for the second time in three seasons after meeting just three times in Nebraska's first 13 seasons in the Big Ten. This year's matchup in Lincoln will mark the first time Nebraska has hosted the defending national champion at Memorial Stadium since Texas visited Lincoln in 2006 after winning the 2005 national title. The 2024 matchup in Bloomington against No. 16 Indiana marked the first time Nebraska faced a ranked IU team since 1945. Indiana and Nebraska met for the first time as Big Ten opponents in Bloomington in 2016 with 10th-ranked Nebraska winning 27-22. Prior to 2016, the four previous meetings came under Coach Tom Osborne, and the Huskers posted a combined margin of 190-43. Those victories snapped a 10-game NU winless streak in the series that dated back to a 13-7 win over Indiana at Memorial Stadium in 1940. Sixteen of the 23 games in the series have been played in Lincoln. IU has enjoyed success, posting an 8-6-2 record in its trips to Nebraska. In fact, from 1940 to 1959, Indiana went 7-0-1 at Memorial Stadium. Nebraska has been ranked in the top 12 of the AP poll in five of the last eight meetings.

Six of the eight matchups between the schools have been played in Lincoln, with Nebraska winning five of those contests. Nebraska's 2016 win over No. 22 Oregon is the Huskers' most recent victory over a ranked opponent. One of the teams has been ranked in five of the eight matchups, with Nebraska owning a top-10 ranking at game time in three of the meetings. Nebraska has scored at least 34 points in each of the last six meetings. The 1953 game between the schools in Lincoln was the first live college football telecast.

Series Notes: Nebraska and Washington will meet for the first time as Big Ten opponents in 2026 in Lincoln. The schools played seven times between 1991 and 2011, including three times in 12 months in 2010 and 2011, with a Holiday Bowl meeting sandwiched between a home-and-home series. Four of the 10 all-time meetings have paired ranked teams, including three games pitting a pair of top-10 teams. Four straight meetings featured one of the teams ranked in the top five nationally. Nebraska's win at No. 2 Washington in 1997 remains the last time Nebraska defeated a top-10 team on the road. Each of the past seven meetings has featured at least one ranked team.

Series Notes: Nebraska and Illinois did not meet in 2025, ending a 12-year streak of squaring off each season. Illinois' overtime victory in the 2024 game in Lincoln marked the first time NU played host to a matchup of ranked teams at Memorial Stadium since 2013. Nebraska's 20-7 victory at Illinois in 2023 ended a three-game Illinois win streak. Overall, the Huskers have won seven of 12 meetings as conference foes. Illinois was ranked 17th in the 2022 meeting, marking the first time NU faced a ranked Illini team. The 2021 game - originally scheduled to be played in Ireland - marked the earliest conference game in school history until NU opened the 2022 season against Northwestern in Dublin on Aug. 27. NU is 9-4 against Illinois in Lincoln, including a 4-3 mark as Big Ten foes. NU's 54-35 win in 2018 marked the Huskers' first 50-point game in a Big Ten game. The only meetings between 1953 and 2013 came in 1985 and 1986 when the Huskers easily won both games One of the more memorable wins in the first half-century of Nebraska football was a 14-0 victory over Red Grange and the Illini on Oct. 3, 1925. It was the only time in Grange's career that he was held scoreless in a home game. NU's second-ever meeting with a Big Ten school came against Illinois with a 6-0 victory on Oct. 24, 1892. NU opened the series with four straight wins in Lincoln from 1892 to 1905.

Series Notes: NU and Ohio State have played nine times as Big Ten foes, including six straight seasons from 2016-21. The first meeting in Lincoln was Nebraska's first Big Ten home game on Oct. 8, 2011. That game featured the largest comeback victory in Husker history, as NU rallied from a 27-6 deficit for a 34-27 win, its first Big Ten win. The 2016 contest was the first in the series between top-10 teams. Ohio State has been ranked in the top 10 in each of the last seven games, including 2019 when ESPN College Gameday came to Lincoln for the first time since 2001. The 2020 game was just the eighth in college football history between two programs with 900 all-time wins. The Buckeyes won the first two games in the series, played in the mid-1950s in Columbus. In the first meeting, the No. 6 Buckeyes posted a 28-20 victory over Bill Glassford's team. The next year, Michigan grad Pete Elliott led his only Nebraska team to Ohio State in a 34-7 loss to the No. 8 Buckeyes.

Series Notes: Nebraska and Iowa began the Heroes Game tradition with the first meeting as Big Ten opponents in 2011. Iowa is now Nebraska's only Big Ten foe that the Huskers play each season. The road team has won 10 of the past 14 games. Nebraska won at Iowa City in 2022, snapping Iowa's seven-game series win streak.Before the 2025 game, the previous seven meetings were decided by a total of 32 points, including last-second field goals by Iowa in 2018, 2019, 2023 and 2024. The schools have met on Black Friday each of the Huskers' 15 seasons in the Big Ten. Nebraska has played on the day after Thanksgiving each year since 1990, including matchups with Oklahoma (1990-95), Colorado (1996-2010) and Iowa (2011-present). Iowa's 56 points in 2017 were the the most points the Hawkeyes have scored in 55 meetings with the Huskers. Iowa was ranked No. 3 entering the 2015 game in Lincoln, the first time NU faced a ranked Hawkeye team (Iowa was also ranked in 2019 and 2021). In 2014, Nebraska rallied from a 17-point second-half deficit, tying the largest road comeback in school history. The Huskers prevailed 37-34 in overtime. No. 1 Nebraska rolled to a 42-13 win at Memorial Stadium in 2000 in the final non-conference meeting, a year after the No. 5 Huskers cruised to a 42-7 victory in Iowa City. NU was ranked at game time in eight straight meetings from 1979-2012. The Huskers were 7-1 in those contests, suffering a 10-7 defeat to the Hawkeyes on Sept. 12, 1981. Nebraska held the Hawkeyes to 13 or fewer points in seven straight matchups from 1980 through 2012. The first true home game in the series was played at Iowa City on Oct. 31, 1903, with Nebraska coming away with a 17-6 win. The previous 10 meetings had come on neutral fields in the Omaha/Council Bluffs area with the two teams battling to a 4-4-2 deadlock.

Series Notes: Nebraska and Michigan have played in four of the the past five seasons, but do not meet in 2026 or 2027. Michigan has been ranked in five straight matchups, including in the top 10 in three straight meetings from 2021 to 2023. Only five of the 14 all-time meetings have been played in Lincoln. Michigan has won the last five meetings after the Huskers won back-to-back games in 2012 and 2013, giving NU the first winning streak in series history. Nebraska allowed just one Michigan touchdown in winning the 2012 and 2013 meetings. The 2012 game in Lincoln was Michigan's first trip to Lincoln in 101 years and the first-ever game between the schools at Memorial Stadium. Michigan's only previous trip to Lincoln came on Nov. 25, 1911, when the teams battled to a 6-6 tie. First-year Nebraska head coach Bob Devaney led the Cornhuskers to a 25-13 victory over the Wolverines in Ann Arbor on Sept. 29, 1962. Between 1962 and 2011, the two traditional powerhouses split a pair of bowl matchups, with No. 5 Michigan defeating No. 7 Nebraska, 27-23, on Jan. 1, 1986, in the Fiesta Bowl following the 1985 regular season. NU knocked off No. 20 Michigan, 32-28, in the 2005 Alamo Bowl, posting the largest bowl comeback in school history.

Series Notes: Nebraska and Minnesota do not play in 2026, marking the second time in three seasons the teams do not face off, after playing annually in NU's first 13 years in the Big Ten. Each of the last two meetings have been weeknight games at Minneapolis. Before Nebraska joined the Big Ten, Minnesota was NU's most frequent opponent among conference schools, with 51 meetings between 1900 and 1990. NU is 5-9 against the Gophers as Big Ten foes, as Minnesota has won the past six meetings, with four of those by seven or less. The 2020 game was played on Dec. 12, the first December game in Memorial Stadium history. Minnesota has won eight of the 12 meetings since 2013 after the Huskers had a 16-game win streak in the series. The 16-game NU win streak from 1963 to 2012 included lopsided NU wins in the first two meetings as Big Ten opponents. In the 2011 win, Nebraska scored the first 34 points, giving NU 145 consecutive points against the Gophers in three consecutive meetings. The first 14 of the wins in the 16-game streak came under Hall of Fame coaches Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne by a combined score of 553-100. NU was 8-0 against the Gophers under Devaney (225-73) and 6-0 under Osborne (328-27). Nebraska posted five shutouts in the winning streak. Nebraska defeated the Gophers for eight consecutive seasons from 1967 to 1974, including NU national championship seasons in 1970 (35-10 at Minneapolis) and 1971 (35-7 in Lincoln). NU posted back-to-back shutouts in the final two meetings in non-league games (1989, 1990), winning by a combined margin of 104-0. Minnesota's 1960 national championship team posted a 26-14 win over Bill Jennings' Huskers in Lincoln in the Gophers' previous victory in the series. The Gophers also beat NU on their way to AP national titles in 1936 (7-0, Minneapolis), 1940 (13-7, Minneapolis) and 1941 (9-0, Minneapolis). Minnesota has never played Nebraska as the nation's No. 1 team, while the Huskers have entered the game with Minnesota as the AP No. 1 three times (1971, 1983, 1984). In 1968, both teams were ranked at game time (NU 9, UM 17) for the only time in series history. Nebraska's 84 points in 1983 are the most scored by the Huskers during the modern era (since WW II). In the first 37 games in the series, which dates to 1900, Minnesota posted a 29-6-2 record and shut out the Huskers 12 times. The Gophers' last shutout came in 1941, which marked the second win in a 10-game winning streak by Minnesota.

Series Notes: Nebraska and Northwestern have played in 14 of 15 seasons since the Huskers joined the Big Ten, missing only 2024. In 2027, Nebraska will play its first game in Evanston since 2020. The 2022 game was played in Dublin, Ireland, the second international game in Nebraska history. Eight of the 14 meetings since NU joined the Big Ten have been decided by three or fewer points or in overtime. Northwestern holds a 5-3 edge in those close contests. Nebraska's 56-7 win in 2021 tied for the largest margin of victory in the series. Nebraska has twice defeated Northwestern on the final play of the game (Hail Mary in 2013 and field goal in 2019), two of the three-walk off Husker wins in Memorial Stadium history. Nebraska is 3-2 at Ryan Field. Nebraska's 2013 Hail Mary victory at Memorial Stadium was the first game-winning Hail Mary in Nebraska history. Nebraska won 29-28 at Evanston in 2012, rallying from a 12-point fourth-quarter deficit to the largest fourth-quarter comeback in school history. The Huskers defeated Northwestern 66-17 in the 2000 Alamo Bowl. The game marked the highest point total by the Huskers in a bowl game and Dan Alexander rushed for a Nebraska bowl-game record 240 yards and two touchdowns. Nebraska has been ranked in the AP top 10 in three of the meetings. Nebraska won the first meeting in series history, 12-0, in Lincoln on Nov. 27, 1902–the only shutout in series history. Northwestern posted a 19-7 victory in the first meeting between the two schools in Evanston on Oct. 3, 1931.

Series Notes: Nebraska and Penn State met as protected division cross-over foes from 2011 to 2013, but have played just three times since 2013, and do not play in 2026 or 2027. Last year's meeting in State College was NU's first trip to Beaver Stadium since 2017. Penn State's trip to Memorial Stadium in 2028 will be the first meeting in Lincoln with fans since 2012. The most recent meeting was held in 2020 in Lincoln without fans during the Covid pandemic. NU won the first three meetings as Big Ten foes, before No. 13 Penn State won in 2017. NU improved to 7-1 all-time in overtime games with its 2013 win in Happy Valley. Nebraska rallied from a two-touchdown halftime deficit for a 32-23 win in Lincoln in 2012. NU's 17-14 win at Penn State in 2011 came in the first game in 46 seasons without Joe Paterno as the Nittany Lions' head coach. Both teams were nationally ranked in five straight meetings between 1979 and 1983, with NU winning three of the five games. In 1982 in Happy Valley, No. 2 Nebraska dropped a 27-24 decision to a Nittany Lion team that went on to win the national title. In 1983, No. 1 NU opened the season with a 44-6 victory over No. 4 Penn State in the Kickoff Classic in East Rutherford, N.J. PSU won four of the first five meetings, including a pair of shutouts in State College in 1920 and 1952. NU claimed its first win with a 19-0 shutout at Memorial Stadium in 1950.

In the 2022 matchup, Trey Palmer had seven catches for 237 yards, setting a school record for receiving yards in a game. Nebraska's win at Purdue on Dec. 5, 2020, marked the Huskers' first regular-season victory in December since 1992. Nebraska held Purdue to minus-2 rushing yards in 2020, the fewest by an opponent in seven seasons. NU has won seven of the 12 meetings as Big Ten opponents. Prior to their first meeting as Big Ten foes in 2013, the schools had not met since 1958, when the Boilermakers shut out NU, 28-0, in West Lafayette.

Series Notes: Nebraska and Wisconsin play for the Freedom Trophy, which debuted for the 2014 matchup. The 2024 game ended a streak of meeting 11 straight seasons, and the schools do not meet again until 2027 in Madison. Nebraska's 19-point win in 2024 ended a 10-game Wisconsin win streak in the series. Nebraska played its first-ever game as a member of the Big Ten Conference at Camp Randall Stadium against Wisconsin on Oct. 1, 2011. The teams met twice in 2012. In the regular-season meeting in Lincoln, NU posted the second-largest comeback in school history, twice rallying from a 17-point deficit for a 30-27 victory. Wisconsin defeated Nebraska in the Big Ten title game at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis. The Badgers have won 11 of 14 games since NU joined the Big Ten. The 2020 game scheduled for Lincoln was canceled due to COVID-19 protocols in the Badger program. Wisconsin won the first meeting between the two teams, 18-0, on Nov. 2, 1901. The Huskers reeled off three straight wins from 1965 to 1973 by a combined margin of 88-19. Former Wisconsin head coach and A.D. Barry Alvarez was a linebacker on those two NU teams. The two teams met again in Lincoln in 1973, when No. 2 NU, under first-year head coach Tom Osborne, escaped with a 20-16 win.
